Mayor Gray spoke about the DV8 Kitchen, developed by Mr. and Mrs. Perez. DV8 is designed to offer a second chance for productive employment to those recovering from substance abuse, by providing employment, but also training in general life skills that will extend to all endeavors. Mayor Gray read a proclamation declaring April 12, 2018 as Rob and Diane Perez Day in Lexington.

Ms. Mossotti described the prevalence of substance abuse among restaurant workers, and how the Perezes recognized a need to turn that trend, particularly after the substance abuse-related deaths of 13 of their own employees over the last ten years.

Mr. Perez talked about how the success of DV8 is as much a testament to the generosity of people in the Bluegrass as it is to the Perez's idea of finding a way to give people a new opportunity. He expressed his gratitude to the donors that have helped them.
