Commander Pape, Div. of Police, presented a disciplinary matter regarding Sergeant Jervis Middleton. It is alleged that Sergeant Jervis Middleton has committed the offense of Misconduct in violation of KRS 95.450 and General Order 1973-02J Disciplinary Procedures of Sworn Officers, Appendix B, Operational Rule 1.02 – Misconduct in that on the Various days of February through August 2018, he allegedly:

- (1) During the referenced time period, Sergeant Middleton contacted numerous officers to check on residence and determine if there were vehicles in the driveway.
- (2) During the referenced time period, officers were requested by Sergeant Middleton to query license plate information about vehicles which were observed at the residence.
- (3) When requesting officers check on the residence or provide information derived from the license plates of the vehicles observed, Sgt. Middleton did not disclose to the officers any reason for his requests. Middleton failed to follow Departmental policy before requesting additional patrol activities causing uncertainty for those officers performing his requests.

Sgt. Middleton's failure to disclose the purpose for his requests or follow Departmental policy regarding additional patrol activities, brought discredit to himself as a law enforcement supervisor and the Lexington Police Department, and impaired the operation and efficiency of not only the Department, but individual officers.

The appropriate punishment for this conduct is Demotion to the rank of Officer.

Upon motion by Mr. Ellinger, seconded by Mr. J. Brown and approved by majority vote (Mr. Farmer voted no and Ms. Evans recused), the disciplinary recommendation was approved.

Mr. Farmer asked about disciplines of other similar offenses. Commander Pape responded.

Ms. Evans stated that she previously had recused from this matter.
