

JUSTIFICATION FOR SOLE SOURCE CERTIFICATION

Sole Source Purchases are defined clearly, based upon a legitimate need, and are limited to a single supplier. Sole source purchases are normally not allowed except when based upon strong technological grounds such as operational compatibility with existing equipment and related parts or upon a clearly unique and/or cost effective feature requirement. The use of sole source purchases must be justified and shall be limited only to those specific instances in which compatibility or technical performance needs are being satisfied.

Sole Source Services are defined as a service provider providing technical expertise of such a unique nature that the service provider is clearly and justifiably the only practicable source available to provide the service. The justification shall be based on the uniqueness of the service, sole availability at the location required, or warranty or defect correction service obligations of the service provider.

JUSTIFICATION FOR SOLE SOURCE CERTIFICATION

My division/department's recommendation for sole source is based upon an objective review of the product/service required and appears to be in the best interest of the LFUCG. I know of no conflict of interest on my part, and I have no personal involvement in any way with this request. No gratuities, favors, or compromising actions have taken place. Neither has my personal familiarity with particular brands, types of equipment, materials, persons or firms been a deciding influence on my request to sole source this purchase when there are other known suppliers to exist.

1. Describe the product or service and list the necessary features this product provides that are not available from any other option.

The Anritsu ervice monitor is owned by other public safety divisions and is the make and model used by radio system's manufacturer to troubleshoot communication issues. This allows compatibility with currently owned accessories, integration of features, training and support from the radio manufacturer. Some features like P25 coverage mapping are not available on other makes and models and lowers LFUCG maintenance cost.

2. Below are eligible reasons for sole source. Check one and describe.

Licensed or patented product or service. No other vendor provides this. Warranty or defect correction service obligations to the consultant. Describe why it is mandatory to use this licensed or patented product or service.

Existing LFUCG equipment, inventory, custom-built information system, custom-built data inventory system, or similar products or programs. Describe. If product is off-the-shelf, list efforts to find other vendors (i.e. web site search, contacting the manufacturer to see if other dealers are available to service this region, etc.)

Uniqueness of the service. Describe.

The LFUCG has established a standard for this manufacturer, supplier, or provider and there is only one vendor. Attach documentation from manufacturer to confirm that only one dealer provides the product.

Factory-authorized warranty service available only from this single dealer. Sole availability at the location required. Describe.

Used item with bargain price (describe what a new item would cost). Describe.

Other – The above reasons are the most common and established causes for an eligible sole source. If you have a different reason, please describe:

3. Describe efforts to find other vendors or consultants (i.e. phone inquires, web site search, contacting the manufacturer to see if other dealers are available to service region, etc.).

An extensive search of internet, on site demos and contacting vendors indicates that Anritsu prices are fixed (much like Apple) with only general accessories that can be are purchased through third parties. Purchasing those accessories separately required additional expense, while this sole source for a fully equipped and configured service monitor will save LFUCG expense.

4. How was the price offered determined to be fair and reasonable?

(Explain what the basis was for comparison and include cost analyses as applicable.)

The closest comparable service monitor actually cost more than the one requested. That service monitor is manufactured by a third party, not available directly to consumers, and is sold under a big brand name. Only the Anritsu models seems to stay on the market long. Purchasing other brands is questionable in the long run.

5. Describe any cost savings realized or costs avoided by acquiring the goods/services from this supplier.

Any supplier will have to add on cost related to time invested and to make a profit as Anritsu does not have any distribution pricing. Simply put, the cost to the vendors is the same for LFUCG to buy direct. Anritsu is providing GSA direct pricing at a 8% savings to LFUCG, versus a reseller. There are no other savings other than the aforementioned accessories that can and will be purchased through third parties.

Use compatible accessories already owned by other divisions. Compatibility of equipment used by radio system technicians in three divisions.
