WHAT IS ON THE TABLE?

On the Table is a one-day opportunity to gather around a table with friends, neighbors, colleagues and maybe even a few people we're meeting for the first time to share a meal and have a real conversation about what's important to us.

In the two years we've hosted On the Table, survey results revealed equity, social inclusion and race relations are key topics of interest. As a community foundation dedicated to making the Bluegrass more generous and welcoming, we're committed to responding to this important feedback.

This year, our conversation will focus on fostering more belonging in our city. We'll come together to share and discuss ideas. Most importantly, we'll build an action list to create a more welcoming and inclusive community.

WHY ON THE TABLE?

We know big ideas can spring from small conversations and people invest in what they help create. At Blue Grass Community Foundation, we are committed to bringing people together to create more generous, vibrant and engaged communities.

On the Table conversations are meant to bring diverse voices to the discussion of who we are, where we're going and how we can get there together. The goal is to discover how each of us can make a difference, joining the thousands of people and organizations that make our communities better places for all. Exploring how we can all work to foster increased belonging in our city perfectly aligns with this vision.

JOIN US!

WHEN: Wednesday, March 27, 2019

WHO: Do you live, work or attend school in the Bluegrass? You are invited to participate by hosting or attending an On the Table conversation.

WHERE: Anywhere! Mealtime conversations – breakfast, lunch, dinner and everything in between – can be hosted in homes, schools, restaurants, places of worship, libraries, offices, parks and other community locations. Meals can be sit-down, catered, picnic, sack-lunch or potluck. It's entirely up to the host.

AFTER MARCH 27: All On the Table participants will be invited to complete a short email survey about their conversations, covering the important issues, big ideas and planned actions that emerge at the table. We want to hear every voice! From these responses, the Community Foundation will issue a report highlighting the findings to help inform efforts to improve our communities for everyone.
