11. Emergent's sole obligation under any warranty shall be to replace or refund defective Products. NEITHER CUSTOMER NOR EMERGENT SHALL BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR SPECIAL DAMAGES OR LOSSES, INCLUDING LOST PROFITS, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY THEREOF.
12. Customer has reviewed, and Customer has provided Qualified Recipients authorized by Customer to receive and/or administer the Product, the instructions for use, storage, handling, and other information with respect to the Product in accordance with the FDA approved prescribing information, and Customer and such Qualified Recipients will comply with such instructions and information. 13. The term of this Certification shall commence on the date of this Certification and continue until terminated by either party upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other party ("Term"). The expiration or termination of this Certification shall not release Customer from fulfilling any obligations it may have incurred prior to any such termination, nor prejudice any rights or remedies that Emergent may have at law or in equity.
14. During the Term and for a period of one (1) year thereafter, Customer shall hold the terms of this Certification and information Emergent discloses to Customer in confidence and not use or disclose it to any third party without the written consent of Emergent. However, the parties agree that the Customer shall not breach this Agreement if it provides information in response to requests made pursuant to state or federal law, including but not limited to the Kentucky Open Records Act.
15. This Certification and Customer's credit application delivered to Emergent, constitute the entire agreement and understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. No changes to this Certification will be binding upon Emergent unless made in writing and signed by Emergent. In the event of any conflict between this Certification and any other agreement or purchase order of Customer, this Certification shall govern.
16. Failure of Emergent to enforce a right does not waive it. If a court of competent jurisdiction finds that any provision of this Certification is invalid or unenforceable, the other provisions of this Certification will remain in full force and effect.

17. Emergent shall not be liable for delay or failure of performance occasioned by causes beyond its control, including, but not limited to, acts of God, civil unrest, acts of terrorism, declared or undeclared wars, fires, floods, unusually severe weather, earthquakes, strike, lock-out, or other industrial or transportation disturbance, governmental law, regulation or ordinance, failure of public utilities, or unavailability, shortage or interruption of ingredients, raw materials, packaging and/or other materials.
