Mayor Gorton asked Meghan Talley to join her at the podium, along with Ms. Reynolds, and read a Proclamation declaring March 7, 2024 as Meghan Talley Day in Lexington. Mayor Gorton shared that Ms. Talley was a resident of the Cardinal Valley Neighborhood and spoke of her community involvement in the Cardinal Valley Neighborhood Association and Cardinal Valley Park Activity Board.

Ms. Talley said that she was honored to be acknowledged and expressed her love for her community.

Ms. Reynolds said that since March was Women's History Month, she wanted to recognize women in Lexington who make a difference, but do not always get recognized. She spoke about Ms. Talley's patience and commitment to the Cardinal Valley and Lexington Community.

Mayor Gorton asked Susan Spalding to join her at the podium, along with Ms. Reynolds, and read a Proclamation declaring March 7, 2024 as Susan Spalding Day in Lexington. Mayor Gorton shared that Ms. Spalding is a volunteer of the Greater Gardenside Association and served for a time as the president of the Gardenside Association. She spoke of some of the accomplishments Ms. Spalding has been able to bring to Greater Gardenside, including bringing the Lexington Farmer's Market to Gardenside Plaza.

Ms. Reynolds said that Ms. Spalding is a very ambitious person and shared an anecdote about Ms. Spalding's efforts to shutter an adult entertainment establishment due to the increased crime in the area that resulted from its operations. Ms. Reynolds said that she was the reason for a lot of collaboration between businesses in the Alexandria Drive Corridor. She thanked her for her service to the community.

Vice Mayor Wu read a statement regarding the conflict in Gaza which said the following: "We the undersigned mourn the lives lost in the horrific conflict in Palestine and Israel. We condemn the targeting, killing, and kidnapping of civilians. We plea for the release and safe return of all civilian hostages. We ask that the government of Israel allow desperately needed humanitarian aid to reach the people of Gaza. We call for a permanent end to the violence and for lasting peace in the region. Most of all, our hearts go out to the people of Lexington, our friends and neighbors, who have lost family, friends, and loved ones in Gaza, Palestine, and Israel.

As a practice, this council, your local legislative body, does not take positions on matters of national and international policy. But we know that a war happening 6000 miles away has a direct impact on our communities right here at home. We are also keenly aware that we in local government are the most accessible to the people and we are proud of that fact. Over the past months, members of our Palestinian community have organized, rallied, spoken to and with us. We thank you for sharing your difficult, personal, emotional stories. We acknowledge that there are others who are afraid to speak out. We want you to know that we see you and we hear you.

We were elected, by you, to serve you, the residents of Lexington, through impactful legislation and funding of important local programs and services. We remain committed to you, our constituents, to protect and defend you from islamophobia, antisemitism, and all forms of discrimination, hate, and violence.

We will continue to work in substantive ways to support this community and all communities in need. We encourage everyone to show empathy and compassion in these difficult times and to reach across our differences and help one another through this time of anxiety, trauma, and grief. We call on other leaders, elected leaders at all levels of government, faith leaders, community leaders, and student leaders, to do your part in supporting the people you represent, your communities. It will take every single one of us to continue to make Lexington a better city for everyone.”

Ms. Gray concurred with the statement Vice Mayor Wu had read on behalf of the Council and said that that, as she had made in previous statements regarding the issue, the, the public should know where she stands on the Israeli and Palestine Conflict. Ms. Gray also shared that she had been to Mary Todd Elementary School because CommonSpirit Health had been working on a nationwide Doctor's Day ad campaign that would feature some Mary Todd Lincoln Students. Lastly, she invited everyone to Liberty Elementary Schools' production of Aladdin at March 8th and 9th at 6:00 p.m.

Ms. Reynolds shared that this Saturday, March 9th was the opening of the Marksburg Family Library Branch on Versailles Road and invited everyone to come out for the library's opening at 12:30 p.m. as there would be a press conference, dancing, and other activities. She also thanked the councilmembers who had made the statement concerning Gaza and reiterated her position on the matter.

*

Ms. Fogle thanked Vice Mayor Wu and the Council for their statement on Gaza. She spoke about various Black History Month events that had occurred at Winburn Middle School. Ms. Fogle also talked about her recent visit to the Rise STEM Academy for Girls to celebrate Women's History Month with the students and how the students had chosen Mayor Gorton as their honoree for Women's History Month.

*

Mr. Worley explained that he did not join the other Councilmembers in signing Vice Mayor Wu's statement because he does not believe it is the duty of the local government to make comments on international matters. He said that he does not accept islamophobia or anti-Semitism in this community and asked everyone to treat each other with respect and to pray for peace. He stated he "... he does all he can to make Lexington a welcoming and safe place for all people.

*

Charles Hite, District 3, said that he believed that it is not the Council's duty to deal with foreign affairs as he felt Lexington Fayette Urban County had enough issues to deal with. He stated that he did not agree with Vice Mayor Wu's statement.

*

Nimona Oliphant, District 10, said that he appreciated the Vice Mayor's statement on Palestine, but wished it had been made sooner. He spoke of his personal background being a Jewish American and said he will never stand for innocent people dying.

*

Ben Bandy, District 10, asked for an official ceasefire resolution and spoke of why Lexington taxpayers should be invested in international affairs like the Israeli Palestinian Conflict.

*

Leandro Braga, District 11, said she is embarrassed to live in Lexington because of gentrification, developers, and meaningless platitudes from elected officials, but for the first time in her life, she said she has found leadership that she feels proud of being provided by the Lexington for Palestine group.

*

Sophia Shalash, District 4, told the story of a woman with twins in Palestine who suffered the bombing of her home. She spoke of the experiences of Palestinians and shared her rage, wondering if it was appropriate. She stated she was not satisfied with the statement that the Vice Mayor had made on Palestine and wanted a resolution supporting a ceasefire resolution in Gaza.

*

Alyssa Rigney, District 11, shared the audio of a recent event where an active air force service member self-immolated outside of the Israeli Embassy in Washington D.C. in an effort to raise awareness about the genocide in Gaza. She asked how close the genocide must come until the Council feels like they are personally affected by

*

Kathryn Larson, District 10, spoke about how she did not learn what Zionism was until she was 37. She spoke about the conflict in Palestine from the point of view of a mental health counselor.

*

Ansel Ruven, District 3, introduced himself as a member of the Kentucky Jewish Council and as a veteran. He expressed his anger at the statement Vice Mayor Wu had made, spoke of his experience with anti-Semitism, and about Hamas's terror attacks on October 7, 2023.

*

Shakira Syed, District 5, thanked Ms. Gray for her calls for a ceasefire. She also thanked Vice Mayor Wu for his statement, but felt his statement fell short. She addressed

Mr. Worley's statement, saying she disagrees with the idea that this is not a local issue and spoke of Louisville's work on a ceasefire resolution.

*

Ala Hassan, District 12, spoke of how hard it was to wake up because she did not want to see what had been happening in Palestine. She spoke of recent events that have occurred in the past two weeks in Gaza. She asked that this statement not be the last thing that the council does in regards to taking a stance on the Israeli Palestinian Conflict.

*

Jenin Ennakoa, District 6, talked about a speaker who had been invited to the University of Kentucky's campus by Turning Point USA , how her and colleagues attended the event, from which they were removed. She talked about how issuing a ceasefire resolution is a part of a larger picture of joining other cities across the nation.

*

Jenna Shalash, District 12, read a poem about being a proud Palestinian. She spoke about her family's background, her father being a Palestinian and her mother being a Lexingtonian. She spoke about a recent incident she had lived in which she had received a scholarship, but had been harassed because of her activism for Palestine.

*

Rabbi Litvin, District 3, spoke of his background and education. He shared that he had spoken previously about the ceasefire resolution matter and reiterated that he did not think it was in the best interest of Lexington to issue one. He spoke about how a mob had gathered after that last Council Meeting and harassed him. He said he felt ashamed that the statement Vice Mayor Wu had made was not made with any perspective or insight from the Jewish community.
