Addendum

Agency: God's Pantry Food Bank

Priority Area: Food Insecurity & Nutritional Access

Program Name: Fayette County Pantry Program

LFUCG Extended Social Resource Grant Program FY18 & FY19 Funding: $389,160 ($194,580 per FY)

Program Summary: Since 1955, God's Pantry Food Bank has operated Lexington's largest pantry program to address food insecurity. It serves an average of 1,750 households monthly. The pantry program is integrated with Lexington's other social service providers to prevent replication. Before a client's first visit to a pantry they must have a referral from one of 246 other agencies. Every month at least 300 new clients come to GPFB with a need for food. Costs for fuel, medical care, and rent are rising; wages aren't keeping up. Food remains non-negotiable.

Desired Outcomes for Clients: The mission of God's Pantry Food Bank (GPFB) is to reduce hunger in Kentucky through community cooperation making the best possible use of all available resources. The organization is mission driven and focuses exclusively on food sourcing and distribution with the philosophy that we must address basic needs first. To that end, the desired outcome of the Fayette County Pantry Program (FCPP) is that any Fayette County resident who is food insecure will have reasonable access to one of the four pantries GPFB operates and that when they visit, they will leave with enough healthy food for every member of their household to have three balanced meals per day for one week.

The intent of the FCPP is to serve Lexington families as a safety net for our neighbors in a time of need and remove food insecurity from their situation. This could be a four-week period of unemployment or an occasional visit when a cold snap results in choosing heating over eating. Making food available can decrease stress and medical issues associated with food insecurity and meet a person's basic needs so they can focus on other areas that need their attention.

For LFUCG Agreement Addendum and Quarterly Reporting purposes, describe below how you will ensure clients' needs are met or goals are achieved Please summarize based on your previous answers to questions above referenced in each column.
