Lessee shall further pay all taxes and assessments upon its leasehold interest as well as upon any personal property belonging to Lessee taxed at the demised premises.

B. The parties to this Lease contemplate that the premises will be used for a governmental or proprietary purpose of Lessor and, therefore, that the premises will be exempt from all taxes presently assessed and levied with respect to the real property. In the event that the use, possession, or acquisition of the premises is found to be subject to taxation in any form, Lessee will pay during the Lease Term, as the same respectively become due, all taxes and governmental charges of any kind whatsoever that may at any time be lawfully assessed or levied against or incurred in the operation, maintenance, use and upkeep of the premises; provided, however, that with respect to any governmental charges that may lawfully be paid in installments over a period of years, Lessee shall be obligated to pay only such installments as have accrued during such time as this Lease is in effect. After the issuance by the governmental authority having jurisdiction of tax bills for taxes assessed, levied and/or imposed upon the premises, Lessor shall promptly submit to Lessee a copy of such bill(s) for the taxes assessed, levied or imposed upon the premises, together with a statement which shall indicate the amount, if any, required to be paid by Lessee.

The Lessee shall not install any equipment which will exceed the capacity of existing electrical, heating, cooling or plumbing systems. There is no warranty against utility interruptions, failures, shortages, and that the occurrence of such is not deemed to be an eviction nor disturbance of use and possession so as to relieve Lessee of any obligation under Lease.

SECTION 6

MECHANIC'S LIEN

In the event that Lessee erects any alterations or improvements to the premises as herein provided, Lessee hereby agrees to and does indemnify Lessor against any mechanics' liens that may be filed against the premises for labor or material furnished, or both, as well as any loss, cost and expense, including attorney's fees, incurred by Lessor by reason of any such mechanics' liens, and, in the event of any such lien if filed, Lessee will immediately pay off or bond the same and cause it to be satisfied and discharged of record.

SECTION 7

RIGHT OF ENTRY

Subject to the rights of Lessee's program participants, Lessee agrees that Lessor's representatives shall have the right at all reasonable times to enter upon and to inspect the premises to ascertain that Lessee is carrying out the terms, conditions and provisions hereof; provided, Lessor shall give reasonable notice to Lessee and allow Lessee sufficient time to notify Lessee's program participants.

SECTION 8

RECORDKEEPING AND REPORTING

Lessee shall by January 31 of each year submit to Lessor: (a) a report describing, on such forms as Lessor shall provide, the services provided by Lessee during the preceding fiscal year, and (b) a copy of Lessee's audit for its preceding fiscal year. Report of services shall include the number of persons served, income status, racial, age and handicap status. Lessor shall have access to the books and records of Lessee in order to inspect, and examine same to document the accuracy and completeness of the report and audit required by this Section.

Lessee shall also maintain records and make reports in accordance with 24 CFR § 92.508- Recordkeeping and 24 CFR § 92.509- Performance Reports.

SECTION 9

MODIFICATIONS, IMPROVEMENTS AND USE

The Lessee may make no modifications or improvements on or to the premises, nor change its use, nor make program changes which affect the benefiting population, without the prior written consent of the Lessor. Modifications or improvements shall be considered fixtures and shall become the property of Lessor; provided, that inventory, furnishings, trade fixtures, and other equipment installed by Lessee shall remain the property of Lessee and may be removed by Lessee upon the termination of this Lease, provided that (1) any of such as are affixed to the premises and require severance may be removed only if Lessee shall repair any damage caused by such removal, and (2) Lessee restores the damaged premises to the same condition it was in before the additions or improvements were installed or affixed. Lessee shall keep the premises free from liens.

SECTION 10

ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLEASING BY THE LESSEE

The Lessee may not assign its interest in the Lease nor sublet the project or portions thereof without the prior written consent of the Lessor. Notwithstanding prior consent of Lessor to an assignment or sublease, the Lessee shall nevertheless remain primarily liable for the payment of rentals due under the Lease and for the full performance and observance of all the obligations under the Lease. In the event of an approved assignment or sublease, Lessee shall provide the Lessor with a copy of any assignment made by the Lessee of its interests in the Lease or any sublease of the premises or any portion thereof within thirty days after the delivery of any such assignment or sublease. Sublessee shall be subject to the same terms and conditions for liability insurance as set forth in Section 3 of this lease and under no circumstances shall the use of the premises as provided in Section 1(B) of this lease be changed. This section applies only to assignment or sublease of the project and does not apply to any subleases between the Lessee and its tenant/participants in the project.

SECTION 11

EVENTS OF DEFAULT

The occurrence of any of the following events will constitute an Event of Default under the Lease:

- A. Failure by the Lessee to pay the rental amount.
- B. Failure by the Lessee to perform any other obligation on its part to be performed or observed pursuant to the Lease for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice by the Lessor to the Lessee specifying such failure and requesting that it be remedied; provided, however, that if such failure be such that it cannot be corrected within such period, it shall not constitute an event of default hereunder if corrective action is instituted by the Lessee within such period and diligently pursued until such failure is corrected; or
- C. The dissolution or liquidation of the Lessee or failure by the Lessee promptly to lift any execution, garnishment or attachment of such consequence as will impair its ability to carry out its obligations under the Lease or if the Lessee becomes insolvent or bankrupt, or makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or consents to the appointment of a trustee or receiver for the Lessee or for the greater part of its properties or a trustee or receiver is appointed for the Lessee or for the greater part of its properties without its consent and is not discharged within forty-five (45) days; or bankruptcy, reorganization or liquidation proceedings are commenced by or against the Lessee, and if commenced against the Lessee are consented to by it or remain undismissed for forty-five (45) days.
- D. Failure by the Lessee to operate a community residence to provide housing for low-income persons with AIDS who require hospice care and other supportive services.

SECTION 12

REMEDIES UPON EVENT OF DEFAULT

Whenever any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Lessor may exercise any one or more of the following remedies:

A. Re-enter and take possession of the premises without terminating the Lease and sublease the premises or any portion thereof provided, however, that until the Lessor has entered into a firm agreement for the subleasing of the premises, the Lessee may at any time fully cure all defaults whereupon the Lessee shall be restored to its use, occupancy and possession of the premises.

B. Take whatever action at law or in equity as may appear necessary or desirable to collect the rental payments then due and thereafter to become due or to enforce performance and observance of any obligation of the Lessee under the Lease;

C. Repair the premises in order to better relet it with the costs and expenses of such repair shall be paid by the Lessee to the Lessor.

D. Upon reasonable notice, reenter and repair any system or equipment, or any portion thereof, without terminating the Lease, upon Lessee's failure to repair same as required herein; the costs and expense of such repair shall be repaid to Lessor by Lessee.

E. No remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to Lessor is intended to be exclusive and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity. No delay or omission to exercise any right or power occurring upon any default shall impair any such right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver thereof, but any such right and power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient. In order to entitle Lessor to exercise any remedy reserved to it in this Section it shall not be necessary to give any notice, other than such notice as may be required by Section 13.

Lessor hereby makes the following representations and warranties to Lessee:

A. The execution, delivery and performance of this Lease and any documents relating hereto have been duly authorized by all necessary parties. If repairs cannot be made within sixty (60) days but corrective action has been instituted within such period and diligently pursued, the Lease shall remain in effect, as set out herein. In the event of total destruction, this Lease may be terminated at the option of Lessee; provided, nothing herein shall require Lessor to rebuild any portion of the premises in the event of total destruction.

If the whole or any substantial portion of the premises shall be taken or condemned by any competent authority for any public use or purpose or if a conveyance be made by Lessor in lieu of such taking, then the term hereby granted shall cease from the day prior to the taking of possession by such authority or on the day prior to the vesting of title in such authority, whichever first occurs, and rent hereunder shall be paid to and adjusted as of that day. All proceeds of such condemnation representing the value of the premises, including the unexpired term of this Lease, shall be the sole property of Lessor. In the event of a partial taking of the premises, as a result of which Lessee is not prevented from conducting its operations in or on the premises in a reasonably efficient manner, then this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as to the remaining portion of the premises and a ratable adjustment of the rent payable by Lessee for the remaining portion of the premises shall be made based upon the ratio of the square footage of the remaining area of the buildings on the premises to the square footage of the original buildings on the premises. Lessor shall be entitled to all compensation and awards arising out of or in connection with such condemnation or acquisition, except that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prevent Lessee from recovering from the condemning authority compensation for the taking of personal property or trade fixtures belonging to it or for interruption or damage to its operations or for moving or other expenses, to the extent any of the same are compensable by law.
