To assist you in the submittal of a complete and accurate application, the DWM has identified the most common errors found during the review process. These errors are listed below for your convenience.

1. Failure to complete the application. All attachments and supplemental data must be submitted with this application.
2. Failure to provide complete and accurate legal documentation of any criminal or judicial findings, which may result in significant penalties for submitting false information, including the possibility of fine and imprisonment for such violations.
3. Failure to properly sign and notarize the application. An individual with signature authority for the applicant as defined by KRS 224.01- 010(44) and 401 KAR 47:160 must sign and notarize the appropriate signature sections of the application.
4. Failure to type or print your responses legibly in permanent ink.
5. Failure to properly identify the applicant. The applicant is the person, partnership, association, company, corporation, government agency, etc., which owns or operates the facility.
6. Failure to properly identify key personnel as defined by KRS 224.01-010(44) and submit the required key personnel disclosure statements signed by the key person.

Warning! Due to the potential for identity theft, do not provide social security numbers to the DWM as part of this application. If this information is required during the normal course of review of the application, a cabinet representative will contact the appropriate individual to acquire this information in a secure format.

- 15. Provide, as Attachment 2, a description of the applicant's and the applicant's key personnel's experience in managing solid waste including any past or present permits or licenses held by the applicant or the applicant's key personnel within the previous five (5) years.
