Re: American Farmland Trust Host Committee

For information only:

Vice Mayor Linda Gorton
Mayor's Appointee

American Farmland Trust (AFT) is bringing together academic and professional thought leaders in the first national conference focused on the overlapping interests of farmland protection, next generation farmers, food system development and sustainable communities. AFT is engaging farmers and agricultural service providers, along with professors, planners and policymakers, to encourage greater understanding and collaboration to improve the "soil to soil" health of America's multi-layered food and farming systems. Mayor Gray appointed Vice Mayor Gorton to serve on the host committee.
