New Life Day Center, Collaborating Agency

Program Name: Advance Lexington

LFUCG Extended Social Resource Grant Program FY16 Funding: $49,000

Program Summary: Advance Lexington, a collaborative project of the Lexington Rescue Mission, Jubilee Jobs, and New Life Day Center, is designed to equip people with marketable job skills for employment. This collaborative project will be located at New Life Day Center, which serves 150 homeless people daily. The target audience is unemployed homeless adults, but the program will be open to all job-seekers living in Fayette County. The Lexington Rescue Mission will provide six weeks of weekday classes at the day center, including its Jobs for Life program.

Each Jobs for Life participant completes 16 classes, which teach soft skills, including identifying and overcoming roadblocks, perseverance and positive attitude, succeeding through adversity, integrity in the workplace, personal responsibility/self-discipline, conflict resolution, excelling on the job, effective resumes and vocational plans, local business community perspective, and developing community networks. Volunteers from the local business community participate in all of the classes, developing mentoring relationships with participants to guide, encourage, and support them in their search for employment.

Once job-seekers complete these classes, they will have the opportunity to enroll in Advance Lexington Staffing Services, which will contract with local businesses to provide temporary employment. While working through the staffing service, trainees will receive a wage and be able to practice the job skills they have learned in a workplace setting. An Employer Relations Coordinator will meet with each employer to identify and address challenges and will provide participants with individual case management and on-the-job coaching on a weekly basis. In addition, they will receive support for their job search, including assistance with resumes, job searches, employment applications and other practical needs (IDs, bus passes, interview attire, etc.). Jubilee Jobs, which works with 75 local employers to place job-seekers, will assist participants with finding permanent employment. In addition, trainees may transition to permanent employment at their assigned workplace.

Long-Term Program Goals: Advance Lexington's goal is that unemployed adults will find lasting employment.
