Addendum

Agency: Kentucky Refugee Ministries - Lexington (KRM)

Program Name: EMPOWER Refugees (Enhanced Mentoring Program Offering Workshops Education and Referrals)

LFUCG Partner Agency Program Funding: $35,810

Program Summary: The EMPOWER Refugees Program was a new initiative in funding year FY13, designed to serve refugee clients after the initial funding for resettlement is spent. One time per capita funding from the U.S. State Department is available for the refugee's first 90 days in the country, and additional federal funds are available for English Language Training and employment services for up to eight months. It is estimated that approximately 400 refugees still have a need for additional case management and/or education after this short period of time. This program will maximize the refugees' abilities to become productive, contributing and educated community members. The EMPOWER classes are designed to address the following issues: financial literacy, domestic violence prevention, housing opportunities, advanced education and training, immigration issues, long-term preventative medicine, nutrition and volunteerism. Day and evening classes are offered weekly on a rotating schedule, and additional workshops will offer instruction from area experts and from refugees who have had very successful resettlements. A caseworker will also offer enhanced case management to clients with special medical, psychological or educational needs. This extended case management will improve the outcomes for refugee clients who would otherwise have difficulty becoming self-sufficient. New classes are developed and offered after consultations with refugees and community partners.

Long-Term Program Goals: The goal of the EMPOWER Refugees program is to provide education, mentoring and services to empower refugees to become self-sufficient productive members of the Lexington community as quickly as possible and to support youth activities that will enhance opportunities for educational success.
