Addendum

Agency: Faith Feeds of Kentucky, Inc. d/b/a gleanKY

Program Name: Glean KY

LFUCG Partner Agency Program Funding: $5,550

Program Summary: Glean KY's goal is to end hunger in Kentucky, starting with Fayette County. Our method for doing this begins with providing homeless, low-income and low-access Fayette County residents with nutritional fresh fruits and vegetables. In 2013, Glean KY worked with over 42 partners (agencies, programs, and others) in Lexington to provide over 143,000 pounds of fresh fruits and target population, which is the homeless, marginally housed, low-income or low-access individuals and families who rely on hunger programs to provide food on a daily, weekly or monthly basis. Our distribution sites include houses of worship, God's Pantry Food Bank ("GPFB"), individual vegetables at 51 distribution sites. This produce augmented the hot meals, sack lunches, food boxes or other provision of food to Glean KY's food pantries, neighborhoods, and other agencies that may or may not receive food from other sources.

currently being wasted. Within this goal of ending hunger, Glean KY plans to provide all of Lexington with access to fresh fruits and vegetables, Long-Term Program Goals: Glean KY seeks to end hunger in Lexington, using sustainable measures, by providing a link to resources that are increasing the quality and nutrition of food consumed by low-income individuals and families and minimizing food deserts

OUTCOMES	Gleanings from supermarkets give us more variety in types of food and allow us to operate 12 months out of the year.	These fruits and vegetables are locally grown, with few chemicals, and very nutritious. This gives lowincome groups access to fruits and vegetables that otherwise did not have it, increasing overall health and wellness and decreasing food insecurity.	Partnering with so many different organizations link all the hunger agencies together. It also helps supply the pantries in need due to recent SNAP cuts and reaches some hunger programs that run without any outside assistance.	There was a 100% increase in volunteers over the previous year, and an increase in non-gleaning volunteers that helped with fundraising, education, and hauling boxes. We had an increase in overall contacts that led to a high number of inkind donations due to volunteer connections. Our number one funding source continues to be individual donors.	Reaching families underserved Increase efficiency of organization

These are distributed to 7 different pantries, and 38 meal programs (some agencies offer both meal and pantry services) equaling 70,000 meals and reaching over 24,000 people a month.	In 2013 over 300 volunteers spent over 1894 hours on over 600 gleaning trips.
