NAMI Lexington Proposal

LFUCG RFP# 70-2014 - Fayette Mental Health Court

Requested Funding - $196,863

NAMI Lexington is pleased to submit a proposal to the Lexington Fayette Urban County Government to provide fiscal management and program oversight to the Fayette Mental Health Court. NAMI Lexington facilitated discussions of community issues by a large group of stakeholders beginning in October 2012. This group's efforts resulted in the authorization by the Kentucky Supreme Court on July 7, 2014 to implement a Mental Health Court for Fayette County. The first session of this court was held on November 24, 2014.

The opening of the Fayette County Mental Health Court enables individuals with mental health issues to obtain professional treatment and community supports as opposed to being sentenced to a jail term. The Fayette Mental Health Court connects our community's mental health services system, corrections system, and numerous charitable organizations that provide critical supports and services.

NAMI Lexington has received the support many diverse stakeholders including, but not limited to: Judge Wilkie and Fayette District Court, Hon. Larry Roberts and the Fayette County Attorney's Office, the Department of Public Advocacy, Lexington Office of Homelessness Prevention and Intervention, UK HealthCare, Eastern State Hospital, bluegrass.org, Catholic Action Center, Central Kentucky Housing and Homeless Coalition, Hope Center, Fayette County Detention Center, Chief Ronnie Bastin and Lexington Division of Police, Sheriff Kathy Witt and the Fayette County Sheriff's Office, as well as the many individuals who have given tirelessly of their time and efforts during planning and development.

NAMI Lexington is a logical choice to administer the funding, evaluation and reporting for the Fayette Mental Health Court.

NAMI Lexington Proposal for RFP# 70-2014 Fayette Mental Health Court

5.1 Project Design

Operation, reduction / prevention of homelessness among persons with serious and persistent mental illness (SPMI)

The Fayette Mental Health Court (FMHC):

- Is based on therapeutic jurisprudence and restorative justice principles, and emphasizes a collaborative and individualized approach aimed at reducing the chances of reoffending.
- Deploys a multidisciplinary team consisting of judges, prosecutors, providers, case workers, and peer support specialists that provide a treatment-oriented, person-centered approach to address the needs of the individual.
- Peer support specialists will perform the role of “systems navigator” which will include matching FMHC participants to appropriate housing services and supports. Independent housing with access to services in the community is a primary goal and value shared by people with mental illnesses.
- Having one’s own home - whether it is an apartment, a furnished room, or a house - is the cornerstone of independence for people. Appropriate housing for court participants is a top priority. When a person has a decent, safe, and affordable home, he or she has the opportunity to be successful in a treatment plan and become part of the community. With stable permanent housing, people with mental illnesses are able to achieve other important life goals, including improved health, education, job training, and employment.

- The Fayette Mental Health Court (FMHC) team began operation on November 24th, 2014 and includes:

Judge Kim Wilkie – Court team lead

Judge Julie Goodman – backup to Judge Kim Wilkie

Heather Matics – Attorney, Fayette County Attorney's Office

Denise Redwine – Attorney, Department of Public Advocacy

John Landon - Attorney, Department of Public Advocacy (FMHC team consultant)

Rebecca L. Asher, Psy.D. - Licensed Psychologist, Forensic Evaluator, Eastern State Hospital

Rose Douglas, LCSW - Regional Director of SPMI services – bluegrass.org

Jennifer Vanort, LCSW - Case Manager – bluegrass.org

Taylor Johnson, MRC, CRC - Case Specialist, Court Coordinator

Dana Gilliland, Kentucky Peer Specialist – NAMI Lexington / Participation Station

Kelly Gunning, M.A. – Community Psychologist, NAMI Lexington – Assistant court coordinator, community liaison

David Riggsby, NAMI Lexington – Consultant, Data collection and program evaluation

Connie Milligan, LCSW – Consultant retired from bluegrass.org, former Corporate Director Access and Crisis Services, Director Kentucky Mental Health Crisis Network for Jails

Team collaboration ensures successful outcomes

The FMHC core team will function as a closely operating, cohesive unit. Relevant and timely communication will be facilitated by holding two staffing meetings per week to update and coordinate information and processes related to the service and needs of existing and incoming FMHC participants. This ensures regular, ongoing communications with team members, community providers and other stakeholders. The court coordinator will regularly communicate with all team members and service partners and then share his / her knowledge with others through one-on-one interactions. These patterns of communication warrant that all stakeholders are on the "same page", reinforcing the collaborative process and ensuring the potential to achieve successful outcomes.

Target population, eligibility criteria, referral to the court

The target population is persons with serious mental illness who face minor criminal charges.

This population is frequently homeless or at risk of homelessness.

A defendant shall be referred to FMHC through one of the following procedures:

- An order of diversion: Diversion shall be the favored method of resolving charges through FMHC.
- An order of probation: a referral to FMHC may be made at any time during probation, including a referral in lieu of revocation.
- An order of contempt of court: any judge may refer a person charged with contempt of court to FMHC in lieu of being incarcerated on the contempt charge.

Screening for viable candidates, determination criteria

Upon receipt of a written order of referral from a judge, FMHC staff will screen viable candidates to determine for eligibility for FMHC using the following criteria. The person:

- Shall have a verifiable mental illness that can be treated.
- Shall be eligible for diversion under this program or probation; or shall have been found in contempt of court; and
- Shall not be a "sex offender" as defined by KRS 17.550; or a "violent offender" as defined by KRS 439.3401
- The evaluation shall examine which services the person has the ability to utilize. The evaluation team shall report the possible services back to the court.
- Any person who would not otherwise qualify for participation in the Court may be admitted to the FMHC with approval of the Court.

Diagnosis of mental illness or developmental disability

Diagnosis will be made on the basis of records reviewed and an initial intake evaluation completed by FMHC staff. An individual will be required to have a documented DSM-IV-TR/DSM V mental health diagnosis that is approved for the purposes of FMHC from a licensed mental health professional. When a referral to FMHC is received, documentation of a prior forensic evaluation (competency, criminal responsibility, mental status) will be requested along with a signed release of information for records of prior and current mental health treatment. Once all documentation is received, a team member from FMHC will complete an intake assessment on the individual in question to assess appropriateness for FMHC. Intake assessments will be completed at the Fayette County Detention Center if the individual is currently incarcerated.

Prior assessments, acceptable length of time since previous diagnosis

All individuals accepted into FMHC must have a prior documented DSM-IV-TR/DSM V diagnosis by a licensed mental health professional. Length of time since diagnosis received will be reviewed on a case by case basis. The acceptable length of time since previous diagnosis will depend on such factors as type of diagnosis (i.e. intellectual disability diagnosis must be made prior to age 18), length of time since treatment received, and other factors as deemed necessary by FMHC staff. If questions exist as to the current diagnosis of the defendant referred, the FMHC staff may request the defendant submit to a forensic or psychological evaluation prior to FMHC staff making a determination of appropriateness for admittance into the program.

Legal incentive for participation

Eligible defendants do not plead guilty at the outset of participation and are monitored regularly by the Fayette Mental Health Court Judge and a dedicated clinical team while under court mandate. Upon graduation, all charges are dismissed for misdemeanor offenders.

Addressing non-compliance

The FMHC team recommends the appropriate responses for a participant's compliance or non-compliance with FMHC requirements and the FMHC Judge has the ultimate decision making authority.

Substance use testing

Drug testing may be administered to any FMHC participant on a regular and random basis, or upon a reasonable suspicion of drug use. The Court will utilize the most cost efficient drug testing services for FMHC, utilizing policies and specifications as authorized by the FMHC. All FMHC participants shall be required to be available for specimen collection as required by the case manager. The FMHC shall be authorized to establish further policies and procedures relating to drug testing.

Program incentives, sanctions and process for discharge from the program

Incentives may be provided during FMHC sessions and may include, but are not limited to:

- Promotion to the next phase; certificates and tokens; decreased supervision;
- Increased privileges and responsibilities; Praise from the FMHC judge and team;
- Extended curfews and other incentives approved by the FMHC team.

Each participant shall comply with all requirements and other conditions established by the FMHC. Failure to comply may result in the FMHC judge imposing sanctions upon the participant. Sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- Admonishments from the FMHC judge;
- Residential mental health treatment in compliance with KRS 202A;
- Community service; Phase demotion; Increased group treatment;
- Home incarceration; Imprisonment; and termination from FMHC.

Discharge from the program will occur with graduation upon successful completion or termination due to non-compliance.

Program Duration and Graduation

- 1.) The FMHC program shall consist of four phases as follows:
 - a. Phase I: stabilization phase to last approximately 3 months
 - b. Phase II: treatment phase to last approximately 3 months, depending on progress
 - c. Phase III: Self-motivation phase to last approximately 3 months

- d. Phase IV: wellness phase leading to graduation to last approximately 3 months
- 2.) The agreed phase criteria must be completed to the satisfaction of the FMHC Judge prior to the graduation to the next phase. In no event shall a participant's time in each phase be less than thirty (30) days.
- 3.) FMHC participants may be required to accept additional terms to successfully complete FMHC. Such terms may include, but are not limited to, the following:
- Employment, school, and/or home visits by FMHC staff;
 - Curfews as established by FMHC;
 - Medical and/or mental health referrals and subsequent treatment recommendations, including treatment programs.

FMHC graduation will typically be held for an eligible participant within 90 days of successful completion of Phase IV of the FMHC program.

Supportive Services

Participants, along with a case manager and a peer support specialist or other trained mentor will develop a person-centered individual treatment plan upon completion of all assessments and review of participant history. The treatment plan will include housing assistance, individual therapy, group therapy, medication management, case management, substance use related therapy, support group meetings, vocational and employment assistance, and attendance at Participation Station, a peer-operated recovery and education center.

Peer specialists and mentors will provide the important role of assisting participants with transportation needs, accessing treatment and medication, and identifying additional benefits and services appropriate for each individual. Agencies that treat persons suffering from mental illness on behalf of the state will be utilized to the maximum extent practicable for treatment and other needed services. NAMI Lexington will maintain a list of authorized state providers and local private providers for said treatment or other services.

Time to begin treatment

Intake assessments will be scheduled within 30 days from the time referral documentation is received, unless special circumstances are deemed appropriate and approved by the FMHC. Peer support and mentor services and development of a person-centered treatment plan may begin immediately upon acceptance into the program.

Direct Screening, assessments, and case management will be provided by qualified community partners. The court coordinator will facilitate coordination of services, communications, and data collection. NAMI Lexington will provide a Kentucky Peer Specialist (KPS) to provide peer support services and system navigation services to court participants. The KPS will work closely with case managers, the court coordinator, and designated community liaisons to access housing, employment, and other services.

Offender to FMHC participant to graduate

After referral and upon receipt of the assessment, Notice of Eligibility, Agreement of Participation and other pertinent information regarding the defendant, the FMHC judge and team shall determine whether the person may be admitted into FMHC. To determine admissibility, the FMHC judge and team shall evaluate the following:

Current criminal charge(s)/conviction(s); Past criminal conviction(s) (if any); results of the assessment; Information regarding the victims, if any; defendant's willingness to participate; and; other relevant information as identified by the FMHC judge and team members.

Once a participant is admitted into the mental health program, the team immediately begins work with the participant to identify needed services and program participation goals. The participant will be introduced to the expectations of the court and will receive a guide to program participation. Participants will complete the activities associated with each phase of the program until all activities have been completed and criteria is met for program graduation.

Housing

The MHC team will collaborate with community partners to identify a full range of permanent housing opportunities, including subsidized housing. Not all participants served will need housing but for those that do this will be a critical component. Success without housing is unlikely! NAMI Lexington is in frequent conversation with housing providers regarding availability and access of housing opportunities.

- Emergency shelter will be pursued when appropriate at Hope Center, Salvation Army, and Catholic Action Center / Community Inn.
- The Housing First model being developed by Hope Center with support from LFUCG will be pursued as a high priority housing option that will likely be a great fit for MHC participants.
- Assisted living programs such as those at New Beginnings and Canaan House may be a good choice for graduating participants. The support services agencies such as these can provide will be a key third component for success that intercedes when struggles emerge.

- Umbrella leasing programs such as the one being developed by Catholic Action Center, NAMI Lexington and Stonebridge apartments have the promise of providing units that would qualify as emergency, transitional, or permanent housing options. These units would be available to Housing First participants and will have an on-site Kentucky Peer Specialist provided by NAMI Lexington to assist residents in accessing wrap around services, peer support, and mentoring programs.
- NAMI Lexington will continue to build collaborative relationships and foster projects that are vital to increasing access to affordable housing options.
- NAMI Lexington will continue to attend monthly meetings of the Central Kentucky Housing and Homeless Initiative (CKHHI), which provides a forum for service agencies to share information and resources. This will provide ongoing access to a number of housing options as they are developed and have openings.

Homelessness and mental illness together have a strong association with public disorder and criminality. The FMHC team will assist these individuals in breaking the cycle of homelessness by establishing and pursuing a permanent housing plan. The plan will outline housing goals and objectives (i.e. scheduling appointments, applying for public benefits, linking to health and mental health care and substance abuse services, etc.) and accessing and maintaining necessary services among health care and social services through a coordinated system.

Examples of activities designed to stabilize participants and move them toward greater levels of self-sufficiency include:

- 1) Attend weekly appearances in FMHC
- 2) Attend scheduled appointments with service providers and / or group meetings.
- 3) Comply with all treatment and service goals/plan, including medication recommendations

- 4) Complete the activities outlined in the participant-centered permanent housing plan.
- 5) Establish/maintain sobriety; Submit to random drug testing as ordered
- 6) Attend WRAP (Wellness and Recovery Action Plan) training activities
- 7) Act as a mentor for other FMHC participants
- 8) Appropriate activities for each participant will be chosen on a case-by-case basis by agreement of all team parties and the participant.

Involuntary Termination, loss of housing

As a last resort, The FMHC staff or team may make a recommendation to the FMHC judge that a participant be terminated from FMHC due to the participant's non-compliance with FMHC requirements or conditions. If the FMHC judge agrees with the recommendation of termination, the case shall be referred back to the appropriate circuit or district for further proceedings. The effect of termination from the program on the participant's housing will depend on numerous variables including but not limited to the terms of any lease the participant has entered into and the specifics of the charges pending for the individual.

Protecting Participant Confidentiality, compliance with laws and regulations

FMHC proceedings shall be confidential and all proceedings shall be closed unless otherwise authorized by the FMHC judge. Documents contained in a participant's FMHC case file shall be confidential and shall not be released. All case files will be secured and double locked as required by HIPPA regulations regarding personal health information. Due to the treatment component of FMHC, team members shall sign a confidentiality agreement. FMHC team members shall comply with state and federal confidentiality laws regarding treatment information.

Filing of FMHC Documents

Upon utilization of any of the following documents, a copy of such documents shall be filed, under seal, by the FMHC staff with the appropriate court clerk for entry into the court record of the underlying criminal offense:

- 1.) Order referring to FMHC; Notice of Eligibility; Order transferring to FMHC;
- 2.) Affidavit of Violations; and, Orders of graduation or termination

5.2 Outcomes / Data Collection

Data-based decision making is critical for any successful project. Data will be utilized to demonstrate effectiveness of the program in relation to participants, the mental health/substance abuse treatment system, and the criminal justice system. For our purposes, we will utilize the program logic model that is used by LFUCG for Extended Social Resource (ESR) Program participants.

ACTIVITIES – services provided to the participants	OUTPUTS – how much of the services will be provided to how many	INDICATORS - Measurable benefits for participants
Receive appropriate referrals to program Screening referrals for eligibility in the program	Comprehensive holistic services will be provided as appropriate to all participants based on assessed needs to approximately 30 participants annually.	Participants should expect to experience an overall improvement in quality of life. This improvement will be measured at minimum by improvements in:

Assessing program participant's needs. (i.e. treatment, housing, case management, etc.) Monitoring participants adherence to recovery/treatment plan Monitoring stability of participants housing situation. Monitoring participants interface with the criminal justice system		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Other data elements that will be collected and aggregated for ongoing analysis

- Number of individuals screened
- Number of individuals eligible (according to program criteria)
- Number of individuals accepted
- Number enrolled in the program;
- Number and percentage of participants by diagnosis at admission;
- Number and percentage of participants successfully completing the program;

- Number and percentage of participants not completing the program by reason for non-completion;
- What services/what type of services did the court participants receive (e.g., case management, housing first, supported employment)?
- How often did they receive them (e.g., once a week)?
- For how long did they receive them (e.g., six months)?
- Participant housing status at admission and after completion;
- Retention in mental health treatment; retention in substance abuse treatment;
- Relevant characteristics of the individuals who were eligible but not accepted
- (including demographics, charges, prior criminal history, diagnosis)
- Reasons not accepted (including legal or clinical reasons)
- Relevant characteristics of the eligible defendants who decline to participate
- Reasons for declining to participate (e.g., requirements too strict, supervision time too long)
- Relevant characteristics of those who were accepted into the court (e.g., demographics, charges, prior criminal history, diagnosis)
- Length of time between key decision points (e.g., screening to acceptance, acceptance to case termination)
- Reasons for termination (e.g., drop-out, completion, revocation)

Source of data elements

The FMHC will rely on a combination of data extracted from official agency records and information collected from participant interviews. Team members will need to determine when the court can rely on self-reported data. Agency records will be relied on for data on the flow of participants through the program and services received. Self-reported data from consumers on the services they received may provide supplemental data in some cases. For some outcomes

(e.g., rates of homelessness), both agency records (criminal justice and mental health) and self-reported information are needed. For other measures, such as service system satisfaction, data must be obtained directly from the participants using interviews or surveys. All of the stakeholders involved in the operation of the court will collaborate to develop and refine a successful data collection plan using input from staff of the various partner agencies who have knowledge and expertise in the kinds of data their agencies can provide.

Who will enter the data

FMHC team communications center around the court coordinator. The court coordinator is then responsible for sharing his / her knowledge with others through one-on-one interactions. These patterns of communication are reliant on the relationships and implicit trust among staff members rather than a set, institutionalized schedule of meetings. As the hub of communications, the court coordinator will have the responsibility of overseeing data entry.

Where the data will ultimately be stored.

Data will be stored and maintained by the court coordinator and NAMI Lexington. A locked file cabinet in a locked office will be provided for hard copy records and a database for electronics records will be maintained by the court coordinator and NAMI Lexington. Further exploration and refinement of data collection and maintenance procedures will take place during the first quarter of MHC operations. Existing software for FMHC data collection will be reviewed and compared. The MHC team will choose from existing data collection software or develop an appropriate Microsoft Access database for use by the team.

Additionally, information for participants who are homeless will be tracked and reported utilizing HMIS - Homeless Management Information System. HMIS is designed to capture standardized, person-level information on men, women, and children who access homeless services. HMIS allows for the sharing of electronic data on client needs, service utilization, housing status, access to mainstream benefits, and other information within a local community. This information assists with coordinated case management while honoring client consent and confidentiality. HMIS also supplies local homeless service provider organizations with data on persons served, including housing and service outcomes. Aggregate HMIS data from local homeless service providers within a jurisdiction informs community planning efforts, such as 10-year plans to end homelessness and the Annual Homeless Assessment Report. Collaboration for information collection with key community stakeholders is critical to success. Collaboration with other local providers on information tracking and reporting can also assist with implementing efficient business processes, resulting in more time for case managers to spend directly with clients.

Other Outcome Targets

The MHC court team will look at information available from other mental health courts in Kentucky, surrounding states and national level statistics to help determine appropriate target numbers for each of the minimum outcomes categories mandated by LFUCG and for those additional categories selected by the team with stakeholder input. There are many variables to be considered when determining target numbers. Availability of services and effectiveness of partner agency collaboration will have some bearing on outcomes. Specific, measurable, realistic and time oriented targets will be determined for each desired outcome and submitted with the third quarterly report to LFUCG.

Other Indicators FMHC Team will assess for appropriateness

- Greater participation in treatment and increased frequency of treatment services
- Improved independent functioning
- Reductions in homelessness

5.3 Sustainability

NAMI Lexington will develop a complete, written sustainability plan for the FMHC during the first 6 months of the operation of the court. A committee will research all potential public and private funding sources at the local, state, and federal levels as well as opportunities for non-monetary support. Recommendations for future funding and collaboration opportunities for the FMHC will be provided in the plan.

Potential funding sources include:

- U.S. Department of Justice (Bureau of Justice Assistance)
- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration)
- Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Program (JMHCP)
- Funding to reduce crime & lighten jail populations
- Potential state general funds and federal block grant funds administered by the state
- Private foundations
- Private and public corporations
- Collaborate on grants or funding requests with other agencies
- Religious groups
- Contracts for services –
 - i.e. training and technical assistance to other communities developing courts

Potential non-monetary support includes:

- Goods and services donated by community partners
- Shared personnel with community partners
- Use of volunteers and graduate student interns where appropriate

5.4 Organizational Capacity

NAMI Lexington is the only local non-profit dedicated specifically to providing advocacy, education, and support to individuals and families impacted by serious and persistent mental illness (SPMI). Chronic homelessness is a significant factor in the lives of people in our community with SPMI and NAMI Lexington maintains a steady focus on the availability of and access to programs and services that address the needs of this population. NAMI Lexington is funded by multiple grants, contracts for services, and fundraisers. A partial list of funders includes bluegrass.org; Department of Behavioral Health Developmental and Intellectual Disabilities; LFUCG; Eastern State Hospital / UK HealthCare; Western State Hospital; Janssen; Humana CareSource; WellCare; Ridge Behavioral Health; and First Southern Bank.

NAMI Signature Programs offered free by NAMI Lexington:

- In Our Own Voice – Living with a Mental Illness,
- NAMI Connections Consumer Support Groups and Family Member Support Groups
- Sharing Hope – African American and Hispanic Faith-based community outreach
- Family-to-Family 12-week Education Course
- Hearts and Minds (Whole Health Training)

A sampling of other significant programs and trainings offered by NAMI Lexington:

- Participation Station, a Peer-operated recovery center co-sponsored by bluegrass.org
- NAMI Lexington is providing 22 hours per week of direct recovery programming services and provisional Peer Support services to patients at Eastern State Hospital.
- QPR Suicide Prevention Training / Gatekeeper Suicide Prevention Training
- WRAP (Wellness Recovery Action Plan) Trainings and Workshops
- Warm Line, a Peer operated non-emergency phone line
- Double Trouble in Recovery (DTR) Support Groups for individuals with co-occurring addiction and mental health disorders; Emotions Anonymous 12 step group
- Multicultural Action Committee (MAC) provides culturally competent advocacy, education, outreach and support to African American and Hispanic communities
- NAMI Lexington offers affordable staff and employee training programs such as the evidence-based Mental Health First Aid training. The Mental Health First Aid program is an interactive 8 hour that can be conducted in one full day or two half-day events. Mental Health

First Aid introduces participants to risk factors and warning signs of mental health problems, builds understanding of their impact and overviews common treatments.

Evidence-based practices in project design

The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) has declared peer support an “evidence-based mental health model of care. The leadership team at Participation Station (PS), a peer-operated center, adopted the evidence-based SAMHSA toolkit for Consumer Operated Services and the associated evaluation/outcome tools. The Fidelity Assessment Common Ingredients Tool (FACIT) measures the success of the program. PS also systematically collects data regarding individual outcomes for participants utilizing the Peer Outcomes Protocol (POP).

NAMI Lexington continues to grow and support Peer-operated services. NAMI Lexington contracts with the Department of Behavioral Health Developmental and Intellectual Disabilities (DBHDID) to provide recovery training and technical assistance to 8 NEW Peer Operated Centers across the state. Peer Support is an evidence-based practice that is renowned for its ability to enhance engagement of individuals with serious mental illness into treatment.

Supported Employment/Individual Placement and Support is an evidence-based practice that helps people with mental illness and other disabilities identify and acquire part-time or full-time jobs of their choice in the community. NAMI Lexington provides unique supported employment opportunities for individuals by hiring part-time staff that are consumers of mental health services and providing ongoing training and supports that allow them to acquire the skill needed to pursue full time employment opportunities. Our part-time staff members are supported through times of relapse and hospitalization and realize that they do not have to worry about losing their job when they are struggling. Knowing this gives them the confidence to focus solely on their own recovery and wellness.

The National Registry of Evidence Based Practice (NREPP) has added Family-to-Family as an evidence-based practice. The NAMI Family-to-Family Education Program is a free 12-session course taught by other family members who have received intensive training for its presentation. Instruction and course materials are provided free to class participants. NAMI Lexington provides the Family to Family Education Course 3 times each year, graduating an average of 25 participants per course.

The project director will be the Court Coordinator (job description attached). Taylor Johnson, currently working with the drug court (CV attached) has been recommended by Judge Wilkie and has agreed to the position pending funding.

Organization and Staff Training

The FMHC is operational as of November 24th. All team members bring years of training and experience to their roles on the team. The team prepared for 2 years to open the FMHC. Judge Karen Thomas from the FMHC in Northern Kentucky and Jim Burch from the FMHC in Louisville both provided informal trainings and numerous resources to the team. The team also travelled to Louisville and Newport to observe those courts in operation.

Additional resources reviewed and “borrowed” from include A Guide to FMHC Design and Implementation from Bureau of Justice Assistance; The Role of FMHCs in System Reform from the Bazelon Center For Mental Health Law; The Brooklyn FMHC Evaluation from the Center for Court Innovation; and Developing and Implementing a FMHC in Michigan from the Michigan Supreme Court State Court Administrative Office. Previously submitted grant proposals from the FMHCs in northern Kentucky and Louisville were also reviewed. Additional training will be identified and scheduled as needed including training associated with HMIS licensing and data entry.

Grants management and financial accountability

NAMI Lexington uses the non-profit version of Quickbooks to manage grant and contract financials. Each deliverable for each grant and contract is assigned a class in Quickbooks and each expenditure is identified with an account in the Chart of Accounts and a class to tie the expenditure to a particular grant / contract / project and deliverable. Reports can be obtained specific to a particular grant, contract, specific deliverables and various other combinations of detail. Our most recent audit (2013) is attached.

Organization history, service delivery model and philosophy, and governance structure

The Lexington Affiliate of the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI Lexington) was founded in 1985 to provide education, support and advocacy for persons whose lives are impacted by serious mental illness. NAMI Lexington has been awarded at the local, state, and national levels as a front-runner in areas of inclusiveness, innovation, diversity, cultural competence, consumer and peer-empowerment, and scope of services. NAMI Lexington is governed by a board of directors and receives advice and guidance from several non-voting advisory committee members. (2015 Board of Directors and Staff information is attached.)

HMIS participation

NAMI Lexington is currently pursuing licensing with HMIS. We have discussed HMIS data entry with Brett Russell at bluegrass.org and David Shadd at the Hope Center. We have reviewed minimum required Universal Data Elements at <https://www.hudexchange.info/hmis/hmis-data-and-technical-standards/> and have determined we would most likely apply for a service point license. We have been referred to Polly Lloyd at Kentucky Housing for assistance to 1) obtain an HMIS license; 2) set up training through KHC to set up our system and provide staff training, and 3) maintain the agreed upon (between LFUCG, NAMI Lexington and KHC) data in HMIS.

5.5 Partnerships and Match/Leverage

The Fayette County “Take Down the Wall” decriminalization initiative began in October, 2012 following a community forum hosted by NAMI Lexington. The initiative established the need for community collaboration and cross discipline conversation and problem solving around services for persons with a serious mental illness who are caught in a cycle of recidivism. Meetings were focused on creating interdisciplinary relationships to collectively identify issues and co-create a community crisis response to the cycle of individuals who are falling through the cracks of the mental health, criminal justice and hospital systems. These individuals are consistently at high risk for incarceration, homelessness and victimization. We looked at current community resources and desired community resources and began directly dialoguing about specific responses to individuals in need at any given time.

A reliable network is established and an informal process of “pick up the phone” and involve the partners who can directly impact the outcome of the crisis situation at hand is established until we can achieve the larger goal of having a more centralized crisis management entity.

The entire “Take Down the Wall” committee is committed to the success of the FMHC and is a stellar example of leveraging the entire community! The Committee includes participants from the following agencies and organizations: Bluegrass.org; Eastern State Hospital / UK HealthCare; University of Kentucky; Department of Behavioral Health Development and Intellectual Disabilities; Catholic Action Center; Central Kentucky Housing and Homeless Initiative; Hope Center; New Beginnings; Fayette District Court; County Attorney’s Office; Department of Public Advocacy; Lexington Jail; Fayette County Sheriff; Lexington Police; Office of Homelessness Prevention and Intervention; NAMI

Lexington; Participations Station; Kentucky Mental Health Coalition; Protection and Advocacy; and the VA Medical Center.

MOUs are currently being developed with Paul Beatrice of bluegrass.org and John Phillips of Eastern State Hospital for services they are contributing to the FMHC. Roles and responsibilities have been identified and draft MOUs have been submitted to leadership teams and / or legal departments for review. Services and personnel from these providers are already in place with the FMHC team and the MOUs are expected to be in place soon.

The judges, prosecuting attorneys, and public defenders currently providing services to the team have participated in the planning of the FMHC for 2 years and are committed to serving the community in their roles.

Verbal commitments and letters of support have been received from Hope Center, New Beginnings, Catholic Action Center, and formal or informal match and / or leverage agreements are expected as meetings can be scheduled and roles and responsibilities can be defined. NAMI Lexington will continue to develop partnerships in the community to serve the FMHC and court participants. We expect match / leverage opportunities to increase exponentially in years 2 and 3 of the operation of the court as outcomes can be reported and the value of the FMHC to the community can be documented.

EEO/AA POLICY AND PLAN

EEO/AA POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of this Company to comply and cooperate to the fullest extent with all applicable regulations of the Equal Employment Opportunity Provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 793), the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of June 26, 1990 and the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1972, all as amended. This policy pertains, as far as the responsibility of this Company is concerned, to any arrangement under which employees, including trainees, are selected for work.

It is the policy of this Company not to discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color, age, sex, and national origin, disabilities or Vietnam Era and Special Disabled Veterans status. This Company will take affirmative action to assure an equal employment opportunity to all qualified persons, and that employees are treated equally during employment without regard to their race, religion, color, age, sex, national origin, disabilities, or Vietnam Era and Special Disabled Veteran's status. Such action shall include but not be limited to:

1. Employment, upgrading, demotion, or transfer.
2. Recruitment and recruitment advertising
3. Layoff or termination
4. Rate of pay or other forms of compensation
5. Selection for training, including apprenticeship, pre-apprenticeship and/or on-the-job training.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR DUTIES

It is the policy of this Company that the Executive Director will maintain the duties of an Equal Employment Opportunity Officer (EEO Officer). The name and contact information for the Executive Director will be communicated along with this policy. The Executive Director has responsibility for effectively administering and promoting an active program of equal employment opportunity. The Executive Director will coordinate the EEO efforts of superintendents, supervisors, foremen and others in the position of hiring personnel.

NAMI Lexington (KY), Inc., hereafter referred to as 'the Company' or 'this Company' will adopt this policy and plan at the first opportunity, which is the next meeting of the Board of Directors, currently scheduled for January 26, 2015.

This Company's Executive Director has the responsibility for effectively administering and promoting an active program of equal employment opportunity within the Company. The Executive Director will make recommendations, where appropriate, to correct any deficiencies found in the Company's program. The Executive Director will ensure that this policy and plan are being carried out.

EEO/AA PLAN

It is the policy of this Company that there not be any discrimination by virtue of race, religion, color, age, sex, national origin, disabilities or Vietnam Era and Special Veterans status, in the functions of hiring, placement, up-grading, transfer or demotion. In addition, there shall not be any discriminatory practices in recruitment, advertising, or solicitation for employment, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, selection for training including apprenticeship, layoff or termination, or treatment during employment. The Company has affirmative action obligations in the hiring of minorities, females, disabled and veteran's applicants.

We will not use goals, timetables or affirmative action standards to discriminate against any person because of their race, religion, color, age, national origin, disabilities, or Vietnam Era and Special Disabled Veteran's status.

This Company shall take specific affirmative actions to ensure equal opportunity. Our compliance with this policy and plan shall be based upon our efforts to achieve maximum results from our actions and we shall document our efforts fully. This Company will implement specific affirmative action steps, at least as extensive as the following actions to ensure equal employment opportunity:

1. Ensure and maintain a working environment free of harassment, intimidation, and coercion at all times and in all facilities at which our employees are assigned to work. We shall specifically ensure that all foremen, superintendents and other on-site supervisory personnel are aware of and carry out our obligations to maintain such a working environment.
2. Establish and maintain a current list of minority and female recruitment sources, provide written notification to minority and female recruitment sources and to community organizations when we have employment opportunities available, and maintain a record of the organization's responses.
3. Maintain a current file of the names, addresses and telephone number of each minority and females off-the-street applicant or female referral from a union and minority or female referrals from a union, a recruitment source or community organization and of what action was taken with respect to each such individual. When applicable if such individual was sent to the Union hiring hall for referral and was not referred back to the Company by the union or, if referred, not employed by the Company, this shall be documented in the file with the reason therefore, along with whatever additional actions the Company may have taken.
4. When applicable provide immediate written notification to the Director when the union or unions with which we have a collective bargaining agreement have not referred to us a minority person or woman sent by us, or when we have other information that the union referral process has impeded our efforts to meet our obligations.
5. Develop on-the-job training opportunities and/or participate in training programs for the area which expressly include minorities and women, including upgrading programs and apprenticeship and trainee programs relevant to the Company's employment needs, especially those programs funded or approved by the Department of Labor. We shall provide notice of these programs to the sources complied under "2" above.

6. Disseminate the company EEO policy notice by providing notice to the unions and training programs and requesting their cooperation in assisting us in meeting our EEO obligations; by including it in any policy manual and collective bargaining agreement; by publicizing it in the company newspaper, annual report, etc.; by specific review of the policy with all management personnel and with all minority and female employees at least once a year; and by posting the company EEO policy on bulletin boards accessible to all employees at each location where construction work is performed.

7. Review, at least annually, the Company's EEO policy and affirmative action obligations under these specifications with all employees having any responsibility for hiring, assignment, layoff, termination or other employment decisions including specific review of these items with onsite supervisory personnel such as Superintendents, General Foremen, etc. prior to the initiation of construction work at any job site. A written record shall be made and maintained identifying the time and place of these meetings, persons attending, subject matter discussed and disposition of the subject matter.

8. Disseminate the Company EEO policy externally by including it in any advertising in the news media, specifically including minority and female news media and proving written notification to and discussing the company EEO policy with other contractors and subcontractors with whom the company does or anticipates doing business.

9. Direct our recruitment efforts, both oral and written, to minority, female and community organizations, to schools with minority and female students and to female recruitment and training organizations serving our recruitment area and our employment needs. Not later than one month prior to the date for the acceptance of applications for apprenticeship or other training by any recruitment source, we shall send written notification to organizations such as the above, describing the openings, screening procedures, and tests to be used in the selection process.

10. We will encourage present minority and female employees to recruit other minority persons and women and, where reasonable, provide after school, summer and vacation employment to minority and female youth, both on the site and in other areas of our workforce.

11. Validate all test and other selection requirements where there is an obligation to do so under 41 CFP Part 60-3.

12. Conduct at least annually, an inventory and evaluation of all minority and female personnel for promotional opportunities and encourage these employees to prepare for, through appropriate training, etc. such opportunities.

13. Ensure that seniority practices, job classifications, work assignments and other personnel practices, do not have a discriminatory affect by continually monitoring all personnel and employment related activities to ensure that the EEO policy and our obligations under these specifications are being carried out.

14. Ensure that all facilities and company activities are non-segregated except that separate or single-user toilets and necessary changing facilities shall be provided to assure privacy between the sexes.

15. Document and maintain a record of all solicitations of offers for subcontracts from minority and female construction contractors and suppliers, including circulation of solicitations to minority and female contractor associations and other business associations.

REPORTING OF COMPLAINTS

If at any time anyone feels he or she has been discriminated against because of sex, race, religion, color, age, national origin, disabilities or Vietnam Era and Social Disabled Veteran status, they should report this matter to the company Executive Director whose name and contact information is communicated along with this policy.

The Executive Director will investigate all complaints of alleged discrimination made to the company in connection with its contractual obligations. EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AGREEMENT

The Law

- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (amended 1972) states that it is unlawful for an employer to discriminate in employment because of race, color, religion, sex, age (40-70 years) or national origin.
- Executive Order No. 11246 on Nondiscrimination under Federal contract prohibits employment discrimination by contractor and sub-contractor doing business with the Federal Government or recipients of Federal funds. This order was later amended by Executive Order No. 11375 to prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex.
- Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 states:

The Contractor will not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of physical or mental handicap.

- Section 2012 of the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Act of 1973 requires Affirmative Action on behalf of disabled veterans and veterans of the Vietnam Era by contractors having Federal contracts.
- Section 206(A) of Executive Order 12086, Consolidation of Contract Compliance Functions for Equal Employment Opportunity, states:

The Secretary of Labor may investigate the employment practices of any Government contractor or sub-contractor to determine whether or not the contractual provisions specified in Section 202 of this order have been violated.

The Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government practices Equal Opportunity in recruiting, hiring and promoting. It is the Government's intent to affirmatively provide employment opportunities for those individuals who have previously not been allowed to enter into the mainstream of society. Because of its importance to the local Government, this policy carries the full endorsement of the Mayor, Commissioners, Directors and all supervisory personnel. In following this commitment to Equal Employment Opportunity and because the Government is the benefactor of the Federal funds, it is both against the Urban County Government policy and illegal for the Government to let contracts to companies which knowingly or unknowingly practice discrimination in their employment practices. Violation of the above mentioned ordinances may cause a contract to be canceled and the contractors may be declared ineligible for future consideration.

Please sign this statement in the appropriate space acknowledging that you have read and understand the provisions contained herein. Return this document as part of your application packet.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

NAMI LEXINGTON
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A - NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

NAMI Lexington, herein referred to as "Organization", is a non-profit organization created to assist families, caregivers and individuals whose life experience includes living with a serious and persistent mental illness. NAMI Lexington provides advocacy, education, outreach and support through NAMI Signature programs developed at the National level and supported by NAMI National and NAMI KY. NAMI Lexington has also developed numerous other significant programs to meet the needs of the community. All NAMI programs are free to the public.

NAMI Lexington co-sponsors the only peer-operated services and support center in Kentucky and contracts with the Department of Behavioral Health, Developmental and Intellectual Disabilities (DBHDID) to provide recovery-oriented training and technical assistance to Community Mental Health Centers and State Psychiatric Hospitals. Collaborating with numerous other community partners allows NAMI Lexington to focus on an integration of Mental Health Services and Primary Health Care. Integrated health care is a system of health care in which both mental and physical problems and disorders are treated simultaneously. It is a system that recognizes that a mental disorder must be treated with equal importance as a physical disorder.

Basis of Financial Statements

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The Organization reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets and permanently restricted net assets. There were no temporarily or permanently restricted net assets at December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Organization considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Tax Status

The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not a private foundation. It is, however, subject to income taxes on "unrelated business income", of which management has determined there were none for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A - NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES - continued

As of December 31, 2013 and 2012, the Organization has no uncertain tax positions that qualify for disclosure in the financial statements. Tax years still open under federal and state statute of limitations remain subject to review and change.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Accounts Receivable

Management believes that all receivables will be collected, and therefore, these financial statements do not include an allowance for doubtful accounts.

In-kind Contributions and Services

The Organization receives donated use of property and specialized services which are reported on the statement of activities. The estimated value of these in-kind contributions and services totaled $24,000 and $25,884 for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012.

NOTE B - DATE OF MANAGEMENT'S REVIEW

The Organization's subsequent events have been evaluated by management through March 24, 2014, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

During the time she was completing her education, she always felt it was pertinent to volunteer and/or simultaneously work in the field to more completely understand and experience the plethora of issues involved in delivering wrap-around social services in a variety of community mental health settings, including desolate and isolated Alaskan Bush communities. Kelly has been Executive Director at NAMI Lexington since 2004 and currently serves as the Director of Advocacy and Public Affairs for the organization. To Whom it May Concern:

UK HealthCare is pleased to offer its support for NAMI Lexington's proposal to the Lexington Fayette Urban County Government to provide funding for a Mental Health Court. NAMI Lexington facilitated discussions of community issues by a large group of stakeholders beginning in October 2012. This group's efforts resulted in the authorization by the Kentucky Supreme Court on July 7, 2014 to implement a Mental Health Court for Fayette County. The opening of the Fayette County Mental Health Court enables individuals with mental health issues to obtain professional treatment and community supports as opposed to being sentenced to a jail term. The Fayette Mental Health Court connects our community's mental health services system, corrections system, and numerous charitable organizations that provide critical supports and services.

The need for this court was apparent, as evidenced by the support and participation of many diverse state and local organizations and entities including, but not limited to, Hon. Larry Roberts and the Fayette County Attorney's Office, the Department of Public Advocacy, Lexington Office of Homelessness Prevention and Intervention, UK HealthCare, Eastern State Hospital, bluegrass.org, NAMI Lexington, Catholic Action Center, Central Kentucky Housing and Homeless Coalition, Hope Center, Fayette County Detention Center, Lexington Division of Police, Sheriff Kathy Witt and the Fayette County Sheriff's Office, Mayor Jim Gray, as well as the many individuals who have given tirelessly of their time and efforts.

Dear Urban County Councilmembers,

As the elected Fayette County Attorney, I am writing to express my office's support for NAMI Lexington's proposal to administer the funds allocated to the Fayette County Mental Health Court by the Lexington Fayette Urban County Government. NAMI Lexington has been a vital partner in the two-plus year effort to establish this court. In October 2012, NAMI Lexington assembled a group of community organizations to discuss the difficulties faced by criminal defendants with mental health needs. As a result of this group's efforts, the Fayette County Mental Health Court was authorized by the Kentucky Supreme Court on July 7, 2014.

The Court offers accused criminal defendants an alternative to jail sentences by providing eligible defendants access to mental health treatment and community supports. It connects our community's mental health services system, corrections system, and numerous charitable organizations that provide critical supports and services.

The need for an alternative to incarcerating the mentally ill was recognized by diverse state and local organizations, including NAMI Lexington, the County Attorney's Office, the Department of Public Advocacy, Lexington Office of Homelessness Prevention and Intervention, UK HealthCare, Eastern State Hospital, bluegrass.org, Catholic Action Center, Central Kentucky Housing and Homeless Coalition, Hope Center, Fayette County Detention Center, Lexington Division of Police, Sheriff Kathy Witt, Mayor Jim Gray, and many other individuals who have given tirelessly of their time and efforts.

When Chief Justice John Minton signed the regulations authorizing the Fayette County Mental Health Court, we had no funding to hire a coordinator or to provide the necessary treatment to our participants. NAMI Lexington stepped into that breach, firmly resolved to make this court a reality. Our first court session was held on November 24, 2014. In addition to actively participating in every planning meeting and court event scheduled, NAMI Lexington has volunteered individuals to serve as temporary coordinators until we can hire a permanent staff member.

Due to its demonstrated commitment and dedication to this endeavor, NAMI Lexington is a logical choice to administer the funding, evaluation and reporting for the Fayette County Mental Health Court.

Sincerely,

Larry S. Roberts

KENTUCKY MENTAL HEALTH COALITION

December 8, 2014

To Whom It May Concern:

On behalf of the 80 member organizations of the Kentucky Mental Health Coalition, I am pleased to write this letter of strong support for the funding proposal submitted by NAMI Lexington regarding the Mental Health Court in Fayette County.

I was the moderator of the first of many community-wide discussions among stakeholders about the problems of individuals with serious mental illness in Fayette County being incarcerated, rather than receiving needed treatment. From that beginning discussion during Mental Illness Awareness Week in October of 2012, NAMI Lexington has led the way in bringing organizations and individuals to the table, keeping the focus on the needs of those suffering from serious mental illness, and looking for partnerships which would result in real progress.

It was truly an acknowledgement of the community's persistence and involvement and NAMI Lexington's leadership when the Kentucky Supreme Court authorized in July of 2014 the establishment of a Mental Health Court in Fayette County. I was able to attend the ribbon-cutting in October of this year and know how exciting it was that the first session of the Mental Health Court was held on November 24, 2014!

We have excellent experience here in Jefferson County and elsewhere in the Commonwealth with the success of the Mental Health Court model. This approach funnels those with significant behavioral health issues to treatment and supports in the community, rather than to incarceration. The Fayette County Mental Health Court – like those in other locations – represents a network and partnership of the community's mental health agencies, the corrections and judicial systems and community agencies that provide those supports and services like housing that are critical to the individual's success in following a treatment path rather than one of jail time.

NAMI Lexington has a storied history – and a well-deserved reputation – as a small, nonprofit advocacy organization which is able to identify a need, bring together all of the affected parties, work through any differences in approach or philosophy to gain consensus, and then persistently “beat the drum” to get the necessary approval, authorization, funding, etc. to make change happen! In this case, they demonstrated the ability to bring together multiple community and state organizations and entities to lay out the need, identify the Mental Health Court as part of the solution, and then to keep the coalition partnerships working together to realize the goal.

NAMI Lexington has been the catalyst and the lynch-pin of Fayette County's Mental Health Court and is recognized as such by their partners. They are, therefore, in an excellent position to be designated as the agency which will have the responsibility of administering the funding, conducting the evaluation of the court and making the reports and updates of the court's activities.

I wholeheartedly endorse NAMI Lexington's proposal. The Fayette County Mental Health Court, the organizations and agencies involved and the individuals with serious mental illness adjudicated by the court will be well-served by NAMI Lexington having that role!

RE: Mental Health Court Letter of Support: NAMI Lexington

Divine Providence, Inc is delighted to support the efforts of NAMI Lexington's proposal for funding to manage the Fayette County Mental Health Court. For the past 2 years community partners have been working with NAMI Lexington to develop this outreach that will yield great impact on our homeless population who suffer with mental illness and rotate between the streets and the jail.

We will provide at no cost to the program, Community Mentors trained to work with those who are suffering from mental illness and homelessness as they are working with the Mental Health Court and service providers. This model has been successful in many areas of the country, and based on the Savannah, GA model has been proven as a best practice by surrounding the clients with professional services, peer mentors and community mentors who will guide and connect the individuals who need intense support to live in safety and dignity. We look forward to the full implementation of the Mental Health Court in Fayette County and appreciate the efforts of all involved.

Director, Office of Homelessness Prevention and Intervention
LFUCG Mayor's Office
200 East Main Street
Lexington, KY 40507

Dear Mr. Lanter,

It is my pleasure to write a letter of endorsement for NAMI Lexington to be the grant holder for the Fayette County Mental Health Court. I have been involved in the development of the Mental Health Court for the past two years as a committee member and co-chair of the NAMI Lexington Decriminalization Committee. I was one of many community stake holders involved in its development, representing Bluegrass.org as the Corporate Director of Access and Crisis Service, having just retired November 1, 2014 after a 34 year career in mental health services.

The Fayette County Mental Health Court was created in response to the difficulty people experience rotating from hospitalization, the Jail, and homelessness on the street or in shelters, with limited involvement in mental health treatment. The lack of treatment is at the heart of the problem. This cycle of difficulty has been documented in communities across the country. One of the solutions has been the development of Mental Health Courts which uses a Judge's "black robe effect" to court order people, with a track record of problems related to their mental illness, into treatment where they can be monitored and helped into needed mental health services, housing and other social supports. It is an approach that has a documented track record of success.

NAMI Lexington presented the idea of a Mental Health Court to a group of community stake holders at a community forum during Mental Health Week in October 2012. A documentary of the one of the successful Mental Health Court programs in Florida was shown and an assembled panel of experts was asked to comment on it. I was one of the panel members and strongly endorsed its concept, having also made a recommendation for such a program to Mayor Gray's Commission on Homelessness.

NAMI Lexington followed up the community forum by assembling up to 50 local and state service providers, Judges, court personnel, police, jail and mental health and other community stakeholders to discuss solutions to this problem. In the monthly meeting that followed, the development of a Mental Health Court was one of the top agenda items. NAMI Lexington brought all needed resource people and information into the planning and development process. They've had the vision and the track record of success to make this program workable in our community.

NAMI Lexington comes into this role with a tremendous amount of experience which speaks to their capacity to be the grant holder for the Fayette County Mental Health Court. They have taken on many of the communities challenges in the past and have brought about tremendous needed social changes. They organized community and state agencies, the Legislature and the Governor to support the building of a new Eastern State Hospital. They developed and run a recovery mall of recovery services for the hospital, which is the backbone of treatment services. They have developed and trained peer support advocates, which will be used in the Mental Health Court. They have an ongoing family to family peer training program to help loved ones understand mental illness. And most importantly, they have developed a social club drop-in center at Participation Station which gives consumers active involvement in recovery oriented services.

These types of services, organized and run by NAMI Lexington, are at the heart of what is needed for the people serviced in the Fayette County Mental Health Court. While they are also accustomed to collaborating with traditional outpatient services providers like Bluegrass.org for individual therapy, medication, and case management, and would do so with the Mental Health Court, their focus is primarily in helping consumers be more socially responsible and productive. They have the big picture of what consumers need and have the ability to meet those needs. It is for these reasons that I strongly endorse NAMI Lexington as the grant holder to operate the Fayette County Mental Health Court.

I am happy to answer any additional questions you may have.

Respectfully yours,

Connie P. Milligan, LCSW

Policies and Procedures of the Governing Body and Staff

I. PROCEDURE FOR RECORDING ACTION TAKEN AT REGULAR AND CALLED MEETINGS OF THE BOARD AND GENERAL MEMBERSHIP

At the scheduled and called meetings of the board and general membership of NAMI Lexington, a designated staff person or board member will record all action items per Roberts Rules of Order in the Minutes of the meeting.

The minutes from the previous meeting will be reviewed at the next regular meeting and upon approval, will be filed either in hard copy or electronically for a minimum of seven years.

The following information is for reference for the recording secretary.

In the meetings of ordinary societies, there is no object in reporting the debates; the duty of the secretary, in such cases, is mainly to record what is "done" by the assembly, and not what is said by the members. The minutes should show:

- Kind of meeting, "regular" (or stated) or "special," or "adjourned regular" or "adjourned special";
- Name of the organization or assembly;
- Date/time of meeting and place, when it is not always the same;
- The fact of the presence of the regular chairman and secretary, or in their absence the names of their substitutes,
- Whether the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, or approved as corrected, and the date of the meeting if other than a regular business meeting;
- All main motions (except such as were withdrawn) and motions that bring a main question again before the assembly, stating the wording as adopted or disposed of, and the disposition—including temporary disposition (with any primary and secondary amendments and adhering secondary motions then pending);
- Secondary motions not lost or withdrawn where needed for clarity of the minutes;
- Previous notice of motions;
- Points of order and appeals, and reasons the chair gives for the ruling;
- Time of adjournment.

Generally the name is recorded of the mover, but not of the seconder, unless ordered by the assembly. When corrections to the minutes are made by the assembly, the corrections are made in the written text of the minutes being approved, and the minutes of the meeting where they are corrected merely state that the minutes were approved "as corrected", without actually stating the details of those corrections.

The secretary should sign the minutes, and in some societies the minutes are also signed by the president. When the minutes are approved, the word "Approved" should be written on the minutes with the secretary's initials and the date.

NAMI Lexington
Policies and Procedures of the Governing Body and Staff

The essentials of a record should be entered, as previously stated, and when a count has been ordered or where the vote is by ballot, the number of votes on each side should be entered. When the voting is by roll call, a list of the names of those voting on each side should be entered, and those answering "Present", and enough names of those present, who fail to respond, to reflect that a quorum was present.

Where the regular meetings are held weekly, monthly, or quarterly, the minutes are read at the opening of each day's meeting, and, after correction should be approved. Where the meetings are held several days in succession with recesses during the day, the minutes are read at the opening of business each day. If the next meeting of the organization will not be held for a long period, as six months or a year, the minutes that have not been read previously should be read and approved before final adjournment. If this is not practical, then the executive committee or a special committee should be authorized to correct and approve them. A special meeting does not approve minutes, and its minutes should be approved at the next regular meeting.

When the reading of the minutes is dispensed with they can afterwards be taken up at any time when nothing is pending. If not taken up previously, they come before the assembly at the next meeting before the reading of the later minutes.

For additional information, refer to RONR 10th ed. pp. 451-458.

Robert's Rules says that all MAIN motions should be shown in the minutes. However, at a meeting, the secretary will have a need to record nearly all motions and what was done (their disposition), recording details that are not intended to show up in the final draft to be submitted for approval at the next regular meeting.

These notes will then be edited and condensed so that secondary motions, e.g. amendments, are not listed separately in the minutes, but are incorporated into the final wording that is the exact same wording used by the chair in putting the question to a vote and/or otherwise disposing of the main motion. The final draft will show all MAIN motions, as amended, and will not show the evolution of the wording of a motion during its amendment. Thus, a half-dozen handwritten pages may become a single typewritten page.

For example, the final draft minutes may be worded as follows: After amendment, a motion by H.M. Robert was adopted, "that the club purchase a new laptop computer for use by the secretary in preparing minutes and other correspondence, at a cost not to exceed $2,500."

The fact that the motion was amended is mentioned only parenthetically, without providing details.

II. GOVERNING BODY REVIEW of Annual Tax Return (Form 990)

The Executive Committee and the Finance Committee of the NAMI Lexington Board of Directors will thoroughly review the completed Form 990 (annual tax return) prior to the filing of the return. The President of the Board of Directors will preside over the review. The completed Form 990 will also be made available to the committees and the full Board of Directors a minimum of 15 days prior to filing deadline. Any questions from the board regarding the completed Form 990 will be directed to the President of the board. Another area of controversy with the development of the Form 990 is whether the exempt organization's governing board is required to review the Form 990 before filing (Line 10). The proposed instructions make it clear that the IRS's principal interest is whether such a review took place, and if so, how (although the inference is that such a review is preferred practice). Details concerning the review (who conducted it, whether it was conducted before or after filing, the extent of the review) are to be described on Schedule O.

The Executive Committee together with the Finance Committee of the NAMI Lexington Board of Directors will thoroughly review the completed Form 990 (annual tax return) prior to the filing of the return. The President of the Board of Directors will preside over the review. The completed Form 990 will be made available to the committees and the full Board of Directors a minimum of 21 days prior to the filing deadline. Any questions regarding the completed Form 990 will be directed to the Finance Committee for review with the tax preparer. The review will be completed a minimum of 7 days prior to the filing deadline.

All governing documents, Form 990, conflict of interest policy and financial statements are available by request to the public. A notice of the availability of documents is posted on the NAMI Lexington website (<http://namilex.org>) and sent to the general membership annually.

Standards of Excellence in this area are intended to create an unambiguous definition of membership that supports the evolution of the organization from a loose confederation of semi-independent organizations to a single unified national organization with state and local presence.

NAMI members embrace the NAMI mission, which is described in the preamble of the NAMI (National) Bylaws:

“NAMI recognizes that the key concepts of recovery, resiliency and support are essential to improving the wellness and quality of life of all persons affected by mental illness. Mental illnesses should not be an obstacle to a full and meaningful life for persons who live with them.

“NAMI will advocate at all levels to ensure that all persons affected by mental illness receive the services that they need and deserve, in a timely fashion.”

- NAMI Lexington shall define a “member” as “anyone who accepts NAMI’s mission and pays dues in accord with NAMI policies.”
- Regardless of their point of entry, all NAMI members are considered members of all levels of NAMI: National, State Organization and Affiliate.
- NAMI Lexington shall offer an opt-out mechanism for members to self-select what information and correspondence they may wish to receive from NAMI Lexington.
- NAMI Lexington shall collect and report standard baseline membership information, to all NAMI levels, and may collect additional membership information, as desired.

Dues

Standards of Excellence in this area are intended to create an efficient and user-friendly standard dues structure that is responsive to the unique financial needs of all levels of NAMI, regardless of regional economy and/or demographic composition. Confusion and inconsistency around dues are problematic for members and potential members alike. We seek to reduce confusion and increase our membership.

- NAMI Lexington shall charge the standard NAMI membership dues amount, as determined by the NAMI National Board of Directors. A lesser dues rate, known as the “Open Door” rate, shall be available to those whose economic circumstances require it.
- NAMI Lexington shall recognize members who join through the “Open Door” dues rate as full members, entitled to the full rights and privileges of NAMI membership, including voting on all NAMI matters.

V. NAMI Lexington Board of Directors – Conflict of Interest Policy

We, the Directors of NAMI Lexington, resolve that no member of the Board of Directors shall participate in any discussion or vote on any matter in which he or she or a member of his or her immediate family has potential conflict of interest due to having material economic involvement regarding the matter being discussed.

When such a situation presents itself, the director must announce his or her potential conflict, disqualify himself or herself, and be excused from the meeting until discussion is over on the matter involved. The President of the meeting is expected to make inquiry if such conflict appears to exist and the board member has not made it known.

VI. NAMI Lexington Whistle Blower Policy

General

NAMI Lexington requires all employees to observe the highest standard of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As representatives of NAMI Lexington, employees must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

Reporting Responsibility

It is the responsibility of all employees to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy.

No Retaliation

No employee who in good faith reports a violation shall suffer harassment or retaliation, nor will he or she suffer an adverse employment consequence. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment. This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns within NAMI Lexington prior to seeking resolution outside NAMI Lexington.

Reporting Violations

NAMI Lexington subscribes to an open door policy and suggests that employees share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with someone who can address them properly. In most cases, an employee's supervisor is in the best position to address an area of concern. However, if an employee is not comfortable speaking with his or her supervisor, or is not satisfied with the supervisor's response, the employee is encouraged to speak with anyone in management that he or she is comfortable in approaching. Supervisors and managers are required to report suspected violations to the President of the Board of Directors, who acts in a "Compliance Officer" capacity for NAMI Lexington. The "Compliance Officer" has specific and exclusive responsibility to investigate all reported violations. For suspected fraud, or if an employee is either not satisfied or uncomfortable even after following NAMI Lexington's open door policy, the employee should contact the "Compliance Officer" directly.

Compliance Officer

NAMI Lexington's Compliance Officer, currently the President of the Board of Directors, is responsible for investigating and resolving all reported complaints and allegations concerning violations and, at his or her discretion, for advising the Executive Director and/or the Executive Committee. The Compliance Officer is required to report, at least annually, to the Executive Committee on compliance activity.

NAMI Lexington
Policies and Procedures of the Governing Body and Staff

Accounting and Auditing Matters

The Executive Committee shall delegate action relating to concerns and complaints regarding NAMI Lexington's accounting practices, internal controls and auditing to the Audit Committee. The Compliance Officer shall work with the Audit Committee until the matter is resolved.

Acting in Good Faith

Anyone filing a complaint concerning a violation or suspected violation must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing that the information disclosed indicates a violation. Any allegations that prove to be false or unsubstantiated, and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly, will be viewed as a serious offense requiring disciplinary action.

Confidentiality

Violations or suspected violations may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant or may be submitted anonymously. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

Handling of Reported Violations

The Compliance Officer will notify the sender and acknowledge receipt of the reported violation or suspected violation within three business days. All reports will be promptly investigated and appropriate corrective action will be taken if warranted by the investigation.

VII. Executive Director Annual Review and Compensation Determination

The ultimate purpose of the Annual Performance Review of the Executive Director is to improve the effectiveness and productivity of NAMI Lexington. Meeting this commitment requires that the Executive Director perform his or her job as capably as possible. The Executive Director is employed by the Board of Directors and is under the direct supervision of the President of the Board.

Performance review is utilized by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors to:

- Work toward attainment of NAMI Lexington's mission, goals, and objectives
- Inform the employee of strengths, weaknesses, and progress
- Improve performance and productivity
- Strengthen work relationships and improve communication
- Develop employee skills
- Recognize accomplishments and good work
- Make recommendations for employee compensation

The consistent use of the performance review will assist the board in the planning, monitoring, evaluation, and development of the Executive Director's performance. This process will also enable the Executive Director to clearly understand his/her job duties and performance expectations and how they fit in to the overall purpose, vision, and goals of NAMI Lexington. It is the responsibility of the Executive Committee to honestly evaluate the work performance of the Executive Director at least one a year.

A performance review conference will be scheduled in the sixty-day period preceding the date of the employee's next anniversary employment date. An effectively managed performance review conference can improve the ongoing communication between the board and the Executive Director. The performance review conference is a private discussion and should only involve the Executive Committee and the Executive Director. Steps should be taken to ensure privacy and minimize interruptions or distractions. Each Executive Committee member will complete a written Executive Director Evaluation Form upon completion of the conference.

During the performance review conference, the committee should

- Review the Executive Directors' current performance goals and/or expectations, and
- Discuss performance effectiveness during the past rating period

NAMI Lexington
Policies and Procedures of the Governing Body and Staff

- Develop a performance improvement plan to address improvement opportunities and/or to increase employee effectiveness during the next rating period
- Establish individual performance goals or expectations for the next rating period and demonstrate how they support the goals of the organization

Compensation Determination

Compensation will be determined by the Executive Committee and approved by the full board. Factors used to determine compensation include:

- Education, certification, or other professional credentials
- Experience
- Knowledge
- Skills
- Performance and/or Productivity
- A review of compensation for persons with similar job descriptions in similar organizations
- NAMI Lexington's ability to pay
- Other meritorious qualities as determined by the Executive Committee

VIII. NAMI Lexington – Financial Reporting and Audit Oversight

NAMI Lexington's financial statements are compiled by the bookkeeper and reviewed monthly by the Board of Directors and quarterly by and an independent accountant whom is not affiliated with the chosen external audit company. External audits are conducted annually.

The NAMI Lexington Board of Directors shall select and oversee an independent external auditor. The Board is responsible for selecting the independent auditor and reviewing its performance, with a focus on whether the auditor has the competence and independence necessary to conduct the audit engagement, the overall quality of the audit, and, in particular, the independence and competence of the key personnel on the audit engagement teams.

The board shall take steps to ensure the continuing independence of any auditor that conducts an audit of the organization. The Finance Committee shall oversee all internal and external audits.

NAMI Lexington
Policies and Procedures of the Governing Body and Staff

IX. NAMI Lexington – Fraud Prevention Policy

Control the mail – Limiting access to the company’s mail is essential in preventing the unauthorized negotiation of cash receipts. In small businesses, owner/management should either personally pick up the mail, or have the mail picked up by an employee who has no responsibilities related to the handling or recording of deposits, accounts receivable records or revenues.

Office coordinator currently picks up mail, fills out report of all mail received. Forward copies of report to E.D., forward mail to appropriate parties, monies to bookkeeper)

Control the bank statements – Similarly, the owner/management should personally pick up the company’s bank statements directly from the bank, or have them picked up by an employee who has no related responsibilities and delivered to the owner/manager unopened. Owner/management should review the contents of the statements before they are reconciled.

Bookkeeper downloads bank statements for reconciliation. Executive Director reviews statements and signs off prior to reconciliation.

Specific items that Executive Director is alert to include:

- Missing checks
- Checks issued out of sequence
- Unknown payees
- Checks that appear to have been altered
- Checks not signed by authorized signatories
- Other unusual items

Control the accounts receivable – Owner/management should limit access to accounts receivable records, and in particular, the ability to issue credit memoranda, discounts and refunds. Accounts receivable detail ledgers should be balanced with the control account at regular intervals and any differences should be investigated promptly. Only owner/management should be authorized to charge off accounts deemed uncollectible. Any discrepancies reported by customers should be investigated promptly. Aged accounts should be reviewed monthly and past due accounts investigated.

This isn’t currently very relevant to NAMI Lexington. We have had a couple NAMIWalks sponsor pledges in past that were not met, but we do not typically have many receivables for goods or services.

Control the inventory – Owner/management should carefully monitor gross profit, and investigate any unexpected variances. Access to inventories should be limited as much as possible, and the use of surveillance equipment may deter inventory theft. If a perpetual inventory is used, periodic counts should be performed at regular intervals for comparison with the perpetual records.

NAMI Lexington
Policies and Procedures of the Governing Body and Staff

T-shirts, NARSAD cards, silver pins – we don't currently keep these items secure or under surveillance...we have never tried to carefully monitor gross profit or see if we break even on these items...

Control the accounts payable – Establish and monitor approved vendor lists. Owner/management should periodically review the list of approved vendors, being alert to:

- Unknown vendors
- Vendors with names similar to other known vendors
- Vendors with no physical address or telephone number
- Vendors whose addresses match employee addresses

E.D. to review a vendor report, detailed check report, and journal entries from Quickbooks monthly and sign off. All sequences and voided checks are accounted for.

E.D. to personally review supporting documentation and approve all Journal entries.

All payables are reviewed and signed off on by E.D. prior to payment.

Limit the number of authorized check signers – If possible, only the owner/manager should be authorized to sign checks. If not possible, consider requiring two signatures on checks, at least those over a specified amount. The use of facsimile signatures should be avoided if at all possible. Never sign checks in blank. Review supporting documentation when checks are signed and investigate any discrepancies. Currently – Bookkeeper writes checks, E.D. or authorized board member signs them. Currently authorized to sign checks - Phill Gunning, Faye Morton, Carolyn and Donnie Colliver. Bob Stagner, our CPA informs us it is ok for Joy to write, Faye to sign, as long as someone else is responsible for receiving mail and reporting as above in "Control the Mail"

Checks = or > $1,000 require 2 signatures

Monitor exception reports – All unprocessed transactions will be carefully examined by E.D. monthly for propriety. This includes revenues, expenses, purchasing and payroll transactions.

Establish a budget – E.D. and Treasurer will establish an operating budget and review and report actual to budget comparisons monthly to President and Executive Committee. Any significant variances will be investigated.

Perform thorough background checks on all new employees – E.D. will call former employers and educational institutions for verification of previous employment and education. Questions regarding gaps in employment or educational history will be answered satisfactorily. A credit report (if authorized by the candidate) will be obtained prior to employment.

NAMI Lexington
Policies and Procedures of the Governing Body and Staff

NAMI Lexington employees will be required to take uninterrupted vacations and establish a schedule of rotation of employee responsibilities – More than just good management, rotation of duties provides a strong disincentive to commit fraud. In addition, it provides an opportunity to discover fraud that has already occurred.

Be alert to changes in employee attitudes, behavior and lifestyles – Because of day-to-day contact, management is in the best position to observe the unusual – attitudes that are hostile or defensive toward management or the company in general, changes in behavior that are inconsistent with employees' normal disposition or lifestyles that are not reasonable based on the employees' level of compensation. Matters that may be of particular concern include:

- Indications of dissatisfaction with compensation, lack of promotion
- Indications of gambling
- Indications of drug use or excessive use of alcohol
- Indications of financial distress
- Indications of infidelity
- Indications of serious illness
- Indications of excessive nervousness
- Indications of severe stress

Provide employees an opportunity to report the occurrence of fraud or other abuse anonymously – In a recent survey, one in five employees said they were personally aware of the occurrence of fraud in the workplace. Eighty percent said they would be willing to report fraud if they did not have to identify themselves. Management can establish hotlines, "suggestion boxes" or other means to enable employees to bring the occurrence of fraud to its attention without requiring employees to give their names. Covered in whistle blower policy

Clearly communicate to employees the behavior that is expected of them – Believe it or not, ignorance has been cited as a common cause of fraud. Some employees have been trained to commit fraudulent acts without knowing what they were doing, just assuming that "that's the way it's done".

Take strong action against employees who commit fraud – Call the police or other law enforcement agency and press charges. Failing to do so sends a message to other employees that management doesn't take fraud seriously.

Conduct your own activities on a high ethical level – Employees will follow the lead of management, whether that lead is ethical or not. More than what is said or included in a policy manual, the actions of management establish behavioral norms.

NAMI Lexington
Policies and Procedures of the Governing Body and Staff

IX. NAMI Lexington – Membership Policy
