

POCKET MUSEUM OCCUPANCY AGREEMENT AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY

This Occupancy Agreement and Release of Liability made and entered into this the 26 day of June, 2013, between LFUG ("Landlord") and the Lexington History Museum, Inc. ("Tenant"), to wit:

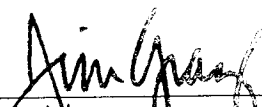

Landlord agrees to allow Tenant to place a Pocket Museum, being one or more display cases and/or photographs, in its lobby area or other area, at a particular place designated by Landlord, in the property designated as Government Ctr., Lexington, KY ("Premises") for the purpose of fulfilling Tenant's mission to present the history of Lexington, on the following terms:

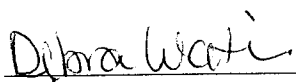

1. Landlord has the right, if it desires, to approve the contents of an exhibit in advance. Tenant will rotate displays among its Pocket Museums on a periodic basis.
2. Tenant accepts full responsibility for each exhibit and its contents, including all risk of loss or damage, and hereby releases Landlord in full and without reservation from any and all liability for any loss or damage.
3. Tenant will vacate the premises on thirty (30) days written notice from Landlord.
4. In exchange for allowing Tenant to occupy the Premises for its charitable purposes, Landlord will be recognized as a "Museum Partner" at the exhibit and in or on all materials describing the Pocket Museums, including advertising, brochures, etc.
5. This document shall serve as the donor acknowledgement communication from Tenant to Landlord for purposes of allowing Landlord to take a charitable deduction for the reasonable rental value of the Premises.

Signed by the parties on the dates indicated below.
