Addendum

Agency: Carnegie Literacy Center, Inc.

Priority Area: Childhood & Youth Development

Program Name: Achievement Gap Reduction Initiatives

LFUCG Extended Social Resource Grant Program FY18 & FY19 Funding: $147,200 ($73,600 per FY)

Program Summary: The Carnegie Center's Achievement Gap Reduction Initiatives for children 0-18 are a remedy for helping at-risk children. Our 25-year-old tutoring program has helped thousands of students from low income families, and our students are more diverse now than ever before: 91% of our students are from minority groups. Other children's programs include pre-reading and reading groups, math and writing workshops, academic enrichment camps, family literacy programs, author visits in schools, and much more. We also give away over 4,000 children's books each year.

Desired Outcomes for Clients: With the Academic Achievement Gap Initiatives, we want children from all areas of Lexington to have the best chance at a bright future, filled with career opportunities and a high quality of life. As reading, writing, and math skills improve, a child's confidence also improves, which translates to other areas of his/her life. By breaking down barriers—financial, language, cultural, and others—we help them succeed in their learning goals, and for some families, end a cycle of illiteracy and poverty. Some goals are to help children improve their academic performance at school; to inspire an interest/love of learning, reading, and writing; and to help children prepare for college and potential careers.
