Mayor Gorton talked about the motion to suspend public comment at all Council Meetings and Work Sessions held via Zoom until the Dept. of Information Technology can devise a way of screening or vetting legitimate callers. She explained this decision was made in response to the racial slurs and comments of bigotry were made when Public Comment was opened during the August 11 Work Session. Mayor Gorton then read the following statement:

The Lexington-Fayette Urban County Council has allowed time for public comment at its meetings for decades. It is not something we are required to do. It is something we have always wanted to do, to ensure transparency and to have an opportunity to hear from all of our citizens. But that doesn't mean that we will listen to people who engage in hate speech. We will never legitimize hatred, racial slurs or any expression of bigotry. So for now, we have suspended public comment. We are searching for technologies and other ways that will allow us to bring it back safely, and in the meantime, all of us – all fifteen Councilmembers and myself – have email addresses and we can all be found on our public website at www.lexingtonky.gov. Thank you.
