Addendum

Agency: Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Bluegrass

Program Name: BBBS of the Bluegrass Mentoring Program

LFUCG Partner Agency Program Funding: $12,500

Program Summary: Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Bluegrass (BBBS) provides children facing adversity with strong and enduring professionally supported one-to-one relationships that change a child's life for the better, forever. BBBS serves children between the ages of 6-18 years old and promotes positive behavior in addition to developing healthy life skills including educational success, arts experiences, personal confidence, and caring relationships, all of which are elements for children to succeed. The premises is that the adult interest in and concern for the child builds a relationship based on trust that allows the child to identify with the adult. Mentoring by caring adults also contributes to youth's positive transition to the adult world of post-secondary education and employment.

Services provided are ongoing with the child (Little) meeting with a volunteer (Big) once a week for about two hours. Our target population includes children at or below the poverty level, children from single parent homes, and children with an incarcerated parent. We are also finding that increasingly more children do not live with either parent and are being raised by a grandparent, another family member or other legal guardian and/or are part of the foster care system.

With funds provided by LFUCG, our program will serve 25 children, 25 parent/guardians, and 25 volunteers for a total of 75 individuals.

Long-Term Program Goals: Children facing adversity become responsible, productive citizens able to achieve lifelong success making Fayette County safer as a community with a better prepared workforce for local businesses.
