Dear Bruce:

Honkamp Krueger & Co., P.C. (HK) is pleased to provide Lexington Kentucky (hereinafter "OIA", "you", "your", or "Company") with the professional services described below. This letter confirms our understanding of the terms and objectives of our engagement and the nature and limitations of the services we will provide.

Engagement Objective

The engagement's objectives are to provide an independent validation of OIA's self-assessment conducted by its internal audit department in accordance with the IIA's prescribed framework and focus on the internal audit activity's practices and processes within the 12-month period preceding the fieldwork. We will validate the IAD's conformity rating with respect to the IIA's standards.

Engagement Scope

We will provide you the self-assessment documents, and, once returned, review and request clarification as needed. The fieldwork will be conducted at mutually agreed upon dates and will begin approximately two weeks after the self-assessment documents are provided to HK for review. We anticipate conducting one on-site visit to conduct a limited number of interviews with senior management and the Audit Committee chair, and review the documentation supporting the IAD's self-assessment. Interviews and workpaper review may be conducted off-site at your request and if technologically feasible. The amount of detail review and interviewing procedures performed depends on a variety of factors including the size of the internal audit department, number of internal audit reports produced annually, and number of senior management and director interviews to be conducted.

Engagement Approach

Prior to commencing the engagement our team will meet with you to review the validation process, timeline, and logistics. HK intends to coordinate with OIA by following the approach below:

- Observe the efficiency and effectiveness of the internal audit activity based on IIA Standards and the International Professional Practices Framework as well as benchmarks and innovative practices using the Global Auditing Information Network (GAIN), as a starting point if prepared
- Identify and communicate ways to enhance internal audit policies, practices, quality monitoring processes, and sharing of other improvement opportunities and innovative practices

- Review self-assessment documentation, including but not limited to the following areas:
 - Review of management and staff interview and survey results
 - Adequacy of the audit committee charter and the IAD charters
 - Creation, maintenance, and risk assessment of the auditable universe
 - Process for developing and gaining approval of the annual audit plan
 - Organization structure and reporting relationships
 - Qualifications and proficiency of the staff
 - Established quality assurance and improvement program
 - Work paper methodologies
 - Internal policy and procedure documentation
 - All facets of the reporting and follow-up processes
- Interview two members of executive management, including the Audit Committee Chair
- Develop a conclusion as to the internal audit activity's conformity to the IIA's Standards

All of the work is expected to be completed at OIA's Lexington, Ky., office location or HK's offices. Throughout the engagement, HK's QAS team will be available to assist OIA in an advisory capacity to address any questions or concerns.

Deliverables

We will issue an addendum covering the results of the Independent Validation to be included with the self-assessment documents. A draft of the deliverable will be provided to you for review and comment, prior to final delivery. The deliverable presented as part of this engagement is for the internal use of your management, Mayor, Council, and Audit Board. We acknowledge that our addendum pursuant to this agreement is subject to the Kentucky Open Records Laws, and may be subject to disclosure to the public. We disclaim any intention or obligation to update or revise the observations or conclusions reflected in our deliverable whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Should additional documentation or other information become available which impacts upon the observations or conclusions reflected in our deliverable, we reserve the right to amend our deliverable accordingly. If for any reason we are unable to complete the engagement, we will not issue a deliverable.

You may request that we perform additional services not contemplated by this agreement. If this occurs, we will communicate with you regarding the scope and estimated cost of these additional services. Engagements for additional services may necessitate that we amend this letter or issue a separate agreement or addendum to this agreement to reflect the obligations of both parties. You further understand and agree that no hard copy document of this agreement shall be retained to prove the terms of this agreement.

Non-Solicitation of Our Employees

You agree that you will not, without our prior written consent, at any time during our engagement with you or for a period of two (2) years from the date of termination of our engagement with you, however caused, directly or indirectly solicit for employment, or attempt to employ or to retain as an independent contractor, or agent, any person who is an employee of ours as of the date of termination of our engagement or who was an employee of ours at any time during the two (2) year period prior to the termination of our engagement.

You further agree that, should you be approached by a person who is or has been an employee of ours during the period described above, you will not offer to employ or accept employment of or to employ or retain as an independent contractor or agent any such employee of ours for a period of two (2) years following termination of our engagement. If any such employee leaves our employ, directly or indirectly, due to solicitation from you or acceptance of employment by you in breach of this contract, you shall be responsible to us for a lump sum payment of fifty percent (50%) of the annual salary of such employee of ours as of his or her last day of employment with us. You shall make such payment to us within thirty (30) days of such termination of employment by the employee with us. You agree that this is reasonable compensation to us in such circumstance.

Termination and Other Terms

If a dispute arises out of or relates to this contract or agreement, or the breach thereof, and if the dispute cannot be settled through negotiation, the parties agree first to try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation administered by the American Arbitration Association under the Dispute Resolution Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes before resorting to arbitration, litigation, or some other dispute resolution procedure. The costs of any mediation proceedings shall be shared equally by all parties.

Client and consultant both agree that any dispute over fees charged by the consultant to the client will be submitted for resolution by arbitration in accordance with the Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes of the American Arbitration Association. Such arbitration shall be binding and final. In agreeing to arbitration, we both acknowledge that, in the event of a dispute over fees charged by the consultant, each of us is giving up the right to have the dispute decided in a court of law before a judge or jury and instead we are accepting the use of arbitration for resolution.

The OIA agrees to indemnify, defend and hold HK and any of its partners, principals, shareholders, officers, directors, members, employees, agents or assigns harmless with respect to any and all claims arising from this engagement to the extent such claims are caused solely by the negligence or intentional acts of the OIA. Nothing contained herein is intended to be, nor shall it be, a waiver of any defense, including that of sovereign immunity, that the OIA may have as to any third party.

Any claim arising out of this Agreement shall be commenced within five years of the delivery of the work product to you, regardless of any longer period of time for commencing such claim as may be set by law. Honkamp Krueger & Co., P.C.'s liability for all claims, damages, and costs of OIA arising from this engagement is limited to two times the total amount of fees paid by OIA to HK for services rendered under this agreement for any injury caused directly to the OIA as a result of services provided, not to any third party.

We reserve the right to withdraw from this engagement without completing our services, for any reason, including, but not limited to, if you fail to comply with the terms of this agreement or as we determine professional standards require.

If any portion of this agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, said finding shall not invalidate the remainder of the terms set forth in this agreement.

At the completion of our engagement, any original source documents will be returned to you. Workpapers and other documents created by us are our property. Such original workpapers will remain in our control, and copies are not to be distributed without our prior written consent.
