Addendum

Agency: Moveable Feast Lexington, Inc.

Program Name: Home Meal Delivery

LFUCG Partner Agency Program Funding: $24,700

Program Summary: The program prepares and delivers a hot, nutritious meal to low-income people in Fayette County with HIV/AIDS, those on Hospice Care, their caregiver and dependent children in the home. Also a cold lunch, for the next day, is provided to the neediest of clients. Program is now averaging 128 meals a day. That averages to over 30,000 meals per year to about 275 unduplicated clients, their caregiver and dependent children.

Long-Term Program Goals: For the HIV/AIDS clients the program hopes to achieve long term success by providing better nutrition than the client could otherwise afford therefore helping them better able to tolerate tough medication regimens therefore extending longevity and a better quality of life. Also by providing food to low-income persons the goal is to free up scarce resources thereby enabling them to obtain more stable housing, transportation, phone and/or medications. We expect that a certain number of them will improve enough to return to work at least part time.

For the Hospice clients we know that they are not going to get better or return to work but the goals are to provide a better quality of life in the time they have left, ease the burden on the caregiver and to forestall or eliminate costly nursing home stays therefore keeping families together.
