PROJECT PLAN ELEMENTS

The goals of Northyard LLC Feasibility Study project is to evaluate a series of Best Management Practice (BMP)/land use alternatives focusing on stormwater management and water quality improvements including the development of preliminary costs for implementing the BMP's at 109 W. Loudon Avenue (a 2.5 – acre site).

Project Elements include:

1) EVALUATE THE APPLICABILITY OF THE FOLLOWING GENERAL STORMWATER
BMPS AT SITE LOCATIONS:

- BMP Candidates: for water quality and quantity control. Each development alternative will focus on stormwater management and water quality improvements in an effort to develop a series of design guidelines that other developers interested in redevelopment opportunities can use to ensure their designs and Investments reach their maximum potential. Additionally, the work in this Feasibility Study will expand upon the work completed in the 2012 "Noli Sustainability Plan", which was funded by a Stormwater Quality Incentive.
- Urban Redevelopment BMP Pattern Book: The Feasibility Study document will be developed as an Urban Infill BMP Pattern Book that will use the 109 property as a case study for three (3) different land use alternatives: commercial, mixed-use, and residential. Each case study will demonstrate BMP solutions that are responsive to the specific land uses using a variety of BMP typologies to address on-site stormwater quality issues. These BMPs will include: bioretention, green roof technology, pavement removal, native landscapes treatment, permeable paving, and many other BMP alternatives. Each case study will include innovative graphic techniques that will inform detailed construction documents in later phases of work as well as operate as educational tools.

- c) Community Design Workshops (Public): Landscape architects, architects and civil engineers from Gresham, Smith and Partners (GS&P) to host two public workshops. The first will focus on BMP education as it relates to urban infill projects. The second workshop will include site tours, and discussions with the 109 Loudon ownership team. This workshop will give the public and local area stakeholders an opportunity to review and respond to design alternatives for the 109 site. BMP alternatives for three land use alternatives for the 109 site will be provided, allowing participants the opportunity to give feedback and learn about the systems being designed.
- d) University of Kentucky Design Seminar (Private): The team includes landscape architects, architects and civil engineers from Gresham, Smith will work hand in hand with Dr. Chris Sass on an interactive design project with the students in Dr. Sass' 'Water in an Urbanizing Landscape" course. This seminar will take place over a number of days and give students the opportunity to work hand-in-hand with professionals using the 109 Loudon site as a test project. The students will work to learn about site analysis, stormwater management, site design and basic urban redevelopment economics. This is a unique opportunity for students to work on a project directly with professionals and will offer them hands-on, real world experiences as they work their way toward starting their careers.

2) FINAL FEASIBILITY REPORT

The results of the Feasibility Study will be presented in a final report that will include:

- a) A list of BMP's that are determined to be effective and suitable for installation at the properties listed on Page 1 under "Project Site Locations and Property Owner(s). They will be prioritized for implementation according to input from project collaborators, at a minimum.
- b) A Stormwater BMP Master Plan of the Northyard, LLC. will show proposed BMP locations, the area draining to the BMP that will be treated, and its discharge location.
- c) Design and construction cost estimates.
- d) Special design and construction conditions such as necessary permit, etc.; and land acquisition costs.
- e) The estimated pollutant removal effectiveness of the BMP.
- f) Letter certifying all BMPs proposed for design are viable and feasible for the specific site and application.

3) EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

The education components of the grant should at a minimum include the following:

- Urban Infill BMP Pattern Book
- Two Community Design Workshops
- The University of Kentucky Design Seminar.
