Re: Contract change with IBM Business Continuity and Recovery Services

Authorizing the Mayor to revise an agreement with IBM Business Continuity and Recovery Services (BCRS) for disaster recovery services, at a cost not to exceed $136,020. The original contract amount of $84,360 is included in this figure. The additional $51,660 is needed to increase the server and storage requirements for effective disaster recovery services. The schedule of resources and rates is included in the contract documents. Increase to contract was known last FY and has been fully budgeted. Annual change in contract pricing takes effect during final 2 months of fiscal year.
