Mr. Moloney expressed his intent behind supporting the initial motion to allocate the $5 million and expressed concerns regarding the disbursement of funds via bonuses. Comm. Hensley responded.

*

*

Ms. Bledsoe spoke about the purpose of the one-time funds, and emphasized that it was critical the City think strategically in regards to long term recruitment and retention across city government.

*

*

*

Mayor Gorton noted that while typically the increase pay would have been bargained, the disbursement plans for the one time funds had been discussed with the Unions and representatives.

*

*

*

Vice Mayor Kay inquired if the bonuses would be phased out over a number of years or if withholding the bonus until a certain timeframe had been considered. Comm. Hensley responded. He asked if it was considered to provide a retention bonus after an employee was employed for a specific number of years. Comm. Hensley responded.
